[#574 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

Can't you see why I'm so happy?

Hallelujah.

I've accepted the Word of the Lord.

Oh yes, we have.

The revealed Word that was spoken

By the Prophet of Malachi 4.

What a great confession of faith that is, this morning. Amen? Let us bow our hearts in His Presence.

What a great thing it has been for us to see this Greater than Solomon, this great revealing of the Son of Man in the End Time – Elohim, God, coming in human flesh in a day like Sodom; the very Creator of Heaven and earth. God veiled in man like a Prophet coming – this Super Sign, Immanuel, the mighty God being unveiled before us. Blessed are our eyes that we see. As He sat there with dust on His clothes, we knew It was the very Voice that spoke the universe into existence speaking through him, revealing these hidden Secrets of Redemption.

And what a joy it has brought to us, the joy that we have looked forward to, the pressing coming of this great Light, breaking between mortal and immortality, between a dying world of corruption and a bright, new, shining Day, bringing us from mortal to immortality. Oh, can't you see why we are happy? We have received the Thunders to open a Mystery that these vile, old, marred bodies will be changed. We have accepted it; we have made it ours – the abstract Title Deed.

Oh God, how grateful we are this morning. And truly, this great Transforming Power works within us. This Quickening Power is pulling this body in subjection to Your Word, showing it is already being brought into a Raptured condition. This immortal Life within us that speaks of that New Day, we feel It all over us. It is lifting us up to walk in this world of Perfect Faith. It has anointed our eyes to see the believer's position in Christ, what You have made us – the grace that You have given to rely upon this Word, and knowing, It is the Infallible Word. It's an Absolute; it is impossible for It to fail. We thank You, Jesus.

We thank You for this Heavenly vision. We thank You, oh God, for Heaven being opened. Not just the bottomless pit opened and Hell is being created on earth, but Heaven opened and we saw Him Who sat on a White Horse, Whose Name is called the Word of God and His vesture dipped in Blood. Now the armies of Heaven do follow Him. While that other group is riding, Hell following Death, God, we are thankful that when this great drama, this great symphony of Your Word is being revealed, Heaven is following Life.

And we are glad that we can say we are one of them. We are in that number, for they are called and chosen and faithful. We see ourselves in the vision, Lord. We claim our place. We identify ourselves. We have heard from our theophany. Oh God, hadn't we had this grace to believe this Word, had we been trapped in blind Laodicea, in that insane Age, drifting aimlessly in the darkness with sin upon our lives, what a miserable condition we would have been in, Father. To think that is what we were.

But when the Son rose on the morrow after the sabbath, (hallelujah,) when You said, "Let there be Light," and the greatest Light that ever shone, began to shine with the coming of the Son of Man in these last days, then we, Seeds that were trapped in the darkness, in the gloom, something began to quicken us, Lord. Under this great Easter Seal, we began to come forth, Lord. “Rise and shine,” You said, (hallelujah,) “thy Light is come.” Here we are today, Seeds of God: palm, oak, lilies, everyone taking their place in Your great economy, Lord, being transformed into the species that they were ordained to be, identifying their place. They are part of this great economy of God.

Oh, we thank You, Jesus, that it is not we who live; it is Christ, the very Mystery of God being expressed, this great chain of Life, this great Eden, oh God; this great Faith Civilization. We see the faith of Abraham. We see the faith that was in Sarah to judge You faithful. We see the faith that was in Rahab to apply the token. We see the faith that was in those mighty Gentile warriors to bring You a clean, fresh drink. We see that faith that was in Joshua, oh God, that faith that was in Caleb, who wholly followed the Lord. We see all these species coming forth. That faith that was in Esther, we see it, Lord, being reflected out of dirt, Trinidad dirt. You showed, oh God, there was a scriptural Seed, a scriptural Life, laying there; a Life that could come forth out of this dirt, Lord, and make the Bible live, give witness and testimony that You are the same yesterday, and today and forever – the identified Christ of all Ages now being identified in Bride form, in the Bride Age, in the Bride coming.

What a time it is for us, Lord. You have made us thus. And this blessed revealed Truth of the Seven Seals have illuminated our hearts and minds to let us see what You have made us. Today we stand in Your house at our post of duty, Lord, with this illumination, rejoicing to know that we have passed from death unto Life. “He that heareth My Word (oh God, the Prophet said, ‘Understand this place!’) and believeth on Him that sent Me, will not come into condemnation, but have passed from death unto Life.” That’s our experience, Father. We were dead in sins and trespasses, but this Quickening Power quickened us and raised us up into Heavenly Places.

We are so glad to see every one, Father, that has caught this faith and has this testimony, Lord, that it has been a New Day for them, Lord God, when it was made real in their hearts. How that is beyond a New Year in the time-calendar, because they have crossed from the Laodicean Age into the Bride Age, into the Eternal Church Age; old things were passed away and all things became new.

Lord, how we want to shine, Lord, in all Your Glory and all Your Power this year, that the witness can become so much more powerful in the earth that it will draw the others that are yet to be brought in, it will truly show forth Your victory and the reason of Your death. With this purpose in heart and mind, we stand here today, in this 2005, Lord, purposing in our hearts to sweep this Message to the Coming of Jesus Christ. We buckle on the armor tight, Father, armors gleaming and colors streaming, engaged in warfare for possession of every Divine promise.

Let this Divine influence move through this Word, move up the chain of islands, move into the assemblies, move into the hearts of the Elected, that they will be a mighty marching army, Lord God, throughout this region, that will revolutionize this region, oh God, and the Power of God will reverberate; there will be such a surge of the current of the Spirit, such an invisible union, that Light will lighten up this region, Father, in a way that it has never been before, wherever Your children are gathered. We ask this today.

Continue to speak to our hearts; unfold Your Word. And if there are those to be brought to Life here this morning, like it was back in Genesis when that risen sunlight began to shine, and quickened those seeds that were waiting for that light, so let it be today, Father. Grant it we ask. We commit all things into Your mighty hands. We give You honor and glory. And may this great Light also ripen the faith in the hearts of Your children. In Jesus' precious Name we pray, amen.

Praise His mighty Name. God bless you. I trust that you are still having a happy New Year; you are still spilling over, it is still all around you, your hearts are filled and overflowing, (amen?) and you are ready to shine forth in all His Glory. It is what we are called unto. Amen. This is not our ambition, for like some human ambition; this is what we are called unto. This is what He has proclaimed unto us in this Hour. This is why He opened Seven Seals. This is why we are called out of organization. Amen.

I would like to read out of Galatians, Chapter 1. I trust that your hearts and minds are still meditating and feeding upon that Word that He gave to us there, Old Year's night, such an opening. It is one thing to talk about the Word, but then when It opens and you can see the revealing, the Light coming out, It gives us faith and courage to walk. Amen.

The Conspirators And Their Conspiracy [2004-1231-Ed.] – a great evil in the world today. That's why the Message has come – there's a group riding, doing that, Hell and Death. All of his subjects who have taken sides against the Word, are becoming Hell, personified. That's what He called them. He called them Hell in this Age, in the Age when the world is uniting, in the uniting time. Religion, politics, demon power, under that Fourth Seal – the world uniting together. Think of it. But while all of that uniting is taking place, God is uniting with His people, the Bride is uniting with the Word; "The Marriage of the Lamb is come." Is that right?

Galatians 1; Revelation 18. I would like to take—speak this morning on a subject I spoke down through the years. And I'm taking back the same title but speaking it in 2005; the 2005 version. Amen. I'm just updating my site. [Bro. Vin chuckles -Ed.] Amen? I want to speak on, “THE REALIZATION OF THE INSANE AGE—

THIS INSANE AGE". THE REALIZATION OF THIS INSANE AGE.

We are in the Age of the mind. We have moved from the eyes to the mind. When we were in the eye Age, the world was blind. When we have come into the mind Age, the world is crazy. That's right. How many know that Laodicea was prophesied to be blind? And how many know that they are naked and don't know it? [Congregation responds, "Amen." -Ed.] Insanity. That's the Bible. If you are a Bible reader, that is Revelation Chapter 3, verses 15 to 17. And Revelation Chapter 3, verse 20, they rejected Jesus Christ; they don't want Him. The falling away is here. What did they fall away from and what did they fall away to? They are continually increasing unto Absalom – the one who stole their hearts, stole their minds, have them in darkness, have them in an insane condition, and they worship him.

But there is a people worshipping the Living God. "The Father seeketh such to worship Him, in Spirit and Truth." Do you know Who God is? Do you know He is one Person, not three? That's right. Glory be to God. When the world thinks He is three persons, you know He is one. "Here ye, O Israel, the Lord thy God is one."

Galatians 1, verse 3:

³ Grace be to you and peace...

And what a good way to start our year – with grace and peace. Message of grace, and peace is union, and He comes to bring union; the Headstone comes to the Body.

... from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

⁴ Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world...

That is the only way we can be delivered from this world. That was why Paul was saying, "Grace and peace came to you," because He gave Himself that He might deliver us.

If He didn't pay the price, we would have been trapped there and stayed trapped forever, and be slaves in bondage to the one who conquered us and trapped us. But there was One Who came to open the prison door and set the captive free. Is that right? And He knew it took a price, but He was willing to pay the price to take us out of the slave market.

⁴ Who gave himself [for us,] for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world...

That word really is 'Age'; this Age. It is a 'time' word. It is not so much speaking of the order here, but the emphasis is on the condition of it in the time. Because Satan is called 'the god of this evil Age', but he blinds the people. And this Age, the god of this world has blinded them. They are in a Laodicean condition, blind. But this is the Age, He said, "Come and buy Eye-salve, that you will see." Amen? He blinds them from the Coming, blinds them from the Truth, blinds them from Who God is; holds them in organization; holds them in an insane... It's a blind condition. They rejected Jesus Christ, being blinded.

But we are not in that condition, the Election obtained it. There is an opening of our understanding because that was promised too, for the Elect: "The Elect will not be deceived." The whole world will be deceived, but the Elect will not be deceived.

⁴ Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil [Age]...

This is the evil Day Paul talked about also in Galatians 6 [Ephesians 6 -Ed.]: "That you might be able to stand in that evil day. That you would have on the whole armor of God." When Satan builds his Eden here and everybody is under his influence, there will be a people with the armor.

That's why he said: The Greatest Battle Ever Fought [1962-0311 -Ed.], Put On The Whole Armor [1962-0607 - Putting On]

The Whole Armor Of God -Ed.], How Can I Overcome? [1963-0825M -Ed.] Why? He came to bring a people... “If the Trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall prepare?” That’s why a certain Word came in this Day. Do you understand? Understand. See, we have the books, but it takes an understanding to put it together to know what God was saying to us. That brings the awakening.

... according to the will of God and our

Father:

⁵ To whom be glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

And Revelation 18. Revelation 17, 18 and 19 is something happening, and is placed there between the Vials, the Third Woe and the Millennium. Because Revelation 16 is the Vials, Revelation 20 is the Millennium, Revelation 21 and 22 is the New Heaven and the New Earth. But Revelation 17, 18 and 19 were put inside of there.

And 17 reveals a woman who has drunken the whole earth, who has deceived the whole world, and who sitteth on a scarlet-colored Beast. The Beast carried this woman. The most diabolical power, that Red Dragon that was in Heaven, is the power on earth that carries this woman. And this woman on earth is who has taken the whole world in. That’s Revelation 17. And 18 is a Voice calling out of there. And 19, the ones who are called out, come to the Marriage; “The Marriage of the Lamb is come.”

It is a secret. It is happening. That woman is here. In her was found the blood of the saints and the martyrs of Jesus. She is the one who was drunken with the blood of the saints. She is the one who killed the Christians. But the world does not know her. Brother, in the Vatican there, he is called the leader of all Christianity, and she is called the mother church, the great church. And all the kings of the earth recognize her as the true form of Christianity. Think of it.

And the power there that carries her is Satan, the Red Dragon that Michael fought, who came down in Eden, who entered the human race, (opened a door to himself,) and since then, his seed is on the earth. The tares are being matured. They never went out of existence, not even in the flood; the giants were still on the other side.

In the time of Jesus, He looked at those Jewish priests, they were handling the Torah, they were carrying on the services in the temple, and Jesus said, "You are of your father the Devil." [St. John 8:44 -Ed.] They had the Law and the scrolls of the prophets. While the whole world was in darkness, he had moved right into the Jewish system and was in control even of the Jewish system, and he used that system to crucify Christ, the very God of creation Who had come down. Did you get that? And when the Church started, they came into the Church too. "As the Serpent beguiled Eve, so they corrupted," and they came into the Church too. And they are in the Message of the Hour too, still trying to kill this.

The dove and the crow were in the same ark. Esau and Jacob were in the womb of the bride whom Eliezer called out. Michael and Lucifer were in the same Heaven. The two trees were in the same Garden, side by side. The two seeds were in the same field: the wheat and the tares. Is that right? Judas was right next to Jesus. That is why it takes revelation, friends. Not church membership; revelation. That is what we desire – revelation.

Revelation 18, verse 1:

That's Revelation 17 – after the revealing of the woman in Revelation 17 who have drunken the kings of the earth and was clothed in scarlet and purple. And those are the official colors of the Vatican. You know that!

¹ And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

From 1946 to '65, they saw the earth lightened with His Glory. No man can deny that was Jesus Christ. He confounded science. He threw His signs in the heavens and the earth. In the realm of medical science, He raised the dead, healed the sick; everything; created. Is that right? Brought Truth – Things that were sealed up in the Bible since before the foundation of the world. His Glory lightened the whole earth.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

Babylon has become that. It has become, what? A habitation of devils. A residing place, a dwelling place – a habitation. The same devils that were cast out, came, “I will return”—“Let us go in the swine,” and were looking for a place. Now, they have a place. They have a habitation.

... and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage [a cage] of every unclean and hateful bird.

Have you ever seen birds in a cage? How do birds get in a cage? Trapped; trapped in a cage. And this world has become a cage. This world has become a cage. Are you in the cage or out of the cage? There is a Word that came to say, “House of Hell, give way,” to open the cage, “that He might deliver us from this present evil Age,” Babylon, that is the cage.

This evil Age is a cage. And they are blinded and they don't know that they are in the cage. And he dressed them, he gave them their identities, he has them in such a condition.

Have you ever been to St. Ann's? [Local psychiatric hospital – Ed.] Who here ever went in the madhouse, or Ward 1 in the hospital? They have them caged. Have you ever noticed that? [Congregation responds, "Yes." -Ed.] And they have to keep them sedated all the time. And when you see them walk around...

One wanted to hit Roger Gibbon [Trinidadian retired track cyclist - 1968 -Ed.], at one time when I went there. Boy, he was only talking about cycling, and he parked up his bike, and got on his bike and then he was riding against Murray Hall [Australian cyclist -Ed.]. Brother, you see them in all kinds of conditions.

Well today, some of them play Batman and Superman and Spiderman [fictional characters -Ed.]; they want to be all kinds of things today. How does that connect? Have you ever seen a man climbing the world's tallest building, without rope and things? That's right. You see, you see things, but when you hear the Word, then you understand what you are seeing.

Why is it normal to you and it does not strike you in a certain place? Why? Because of the extent of your liberation. The extent of liberation you need to be raised up to see the world you are in, friends. That is why I am speaking this morning on the realization; the realization of the Age.

³ For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication...

He didn't say some nations, you know, A-L-L. Do you have that in your Bible? Trinidad is in there.

... and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth...

That is the realm of politics, and that is the economy. Kings of the earth – those are rulers, leaders of nations. All nations, kings of the earth, rulers of the nations, merchants of the earth; the economy.

... are waxed rich through the abundance of her [her – Babylon] delicacies.

⁴ And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people...

Not everybody; "Lazarus, come forth." "My people!"

... Come out of her, my people, [and] ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

⁵ For her sins have reached [up] unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

May the Lord bless the reading of His Word! You may have your seats this morning. Praise His mighty Name.

I would like to, as I said, speak on, THE REALIZATION OF THIS INSANE AGE, and to take a little look at these souls that are captured and caged up in the prison house. Because if they have come to a cage, they had to be captured before they were put in the cage. They are in the cage, but before they could get in the cage, there was one who had a thought how to cage them.

You know, in the Bible, It talks about 'fowlers'. They call them fowlers; we call them bird-catchers. And I remember as a young boy growing up, we were from an environment where, in the evening, all these fellows came out by the street corner with their birds in the cages. And everybody was walking around with their birds. And they put down their birds there and they had all their birds whistling and everything else, and you know, whose bird can whistle the best.

And I remember in those days there were primitive methods, before all this science came in. They went and got 'laglee'. They called it 'laglee'; they would cut the chataigne tree [bread nut -Ed.], and all the sticky sap that came out, they had a way they took it and they put it there and they set it to catch the birds. And they made the little cage with the trap door, as they knew the trees that certain birds would be in. Is that right?

Who is in the pleasure tree, who is in the sports tree, who is in the political tree! They know which birds are in which trees, and they put the trap inside the tree because they know the time that that bird will be in that tree. And sometimes they sit there and come back and they see birds in the cage. They have all power over it once it is trapped in the cage. They could cook it, they could set it free, they could pluck it, they could cut the wings and put it in the yard, let it walk around in the yard because it can't fly, once they keep it controlled. And all this power, the bird-catcher has even before he gets one piece of cedar wood and a piece of wire to make the cage.

They used to construct their own cages, because they never used to sell bird cages. After a while, people realized that they could sell bird cages, so they started to sell. But in my time, every man used to make his own bird cage. And they made the bird cages and they varnished it up nice, and they used to even get a nice, little thing of water at the side, like a little tube with the water, and they had the little thing for the seeds, and they had the trap part of it and, you know, they had it nice. And sometimes, in the cage, they had some in this part of the cage, and they had some in another part of the cage, separated too.

Now think of it. We used to look at that and see that. And as we think of it in these very primitive thoughts, in simplicity, if a man could design something, knowing the bird, knowing the tree the bird is in, knowing the time the bird feeds, knowing... And sometimes, do you know what they do? They don't put an empty cage to trap those birds, you know; they put that bird who sings plenty. And when those other birds see that one singing, a little Absalom inside of there, all of them take off after that cage, not knowing it is a trap there. He was put up to draw them. He has a magnetic pull to pull them into that cage. Now you can see that, can't you?

Then if we are likened to birds... How many know that we are likened to birds? How many know God likened Himself to a bird? How many know the Holy Ghost came in the form of a Dove? How many know God likened His prophets to eagles? How many know He called the religious systems, vultures? How many know He called the Pentecostal Age a hawk? How many know that singing groups call themselves ‘Nightingales’, and we have Sparrow? [Slinger Francisco - calypsonian -Ed.] Do you get what I’m saying?

So, you look at this and you realize now, a bird-catcher, he knows how to catch a certain bird that he wants. He is not going to catch any corbeaux [turkey vulture -Ed.], you know. He wants a nice little canary; he wants a semp. [A local bird -Ed.] He knows semp likes fig [banana -Ed.]; he puts fig. Do you get what I’m saying? He knows what they like.

That is showing, man studies the nature, and the personality, and the behavior, and the environment of things that they have their hearts set upon to bring under their control; to capture, to make it their possession, and say, “You are going to sing for me.” Today they call it a contract. “And I could take you to court if you break your contract.” It is a cage, you know; it is a chain. And that bird in that cage, he gets up and he sings, sings, sings, and that man just sits down there, he is drinking coffee, he is doing different things, he goes now and again and he drops a little bird seed inside, he kind of changes the paper; puts in fresh Gazette. [Newspaper -Ed.] He has a prisoner, just like Remand Yard [local prison -Ed.]; just like a maximum-security prison.

How many know that the Bible used that same illustration: in the last days, people will be hunted, people will be snared; people will be trapped and caged? That’s what He was talking about here. The word ‘habitation’ there means, ‘an abode’; a habitation. It means, ‘to dwell’; ‘an inhabitant’. Metaphorically, He is speaking of divine powers, supernatural influences that are said to dwell in the soul of the inhabitant. It’s a habitation. A habitation...

Like a bird has a habitat, and you create a habitat for a certain bird. Now, when you take a bird out of its habitat, it can’t survive. When you take a fish out of water, it can't survive. When you take a bird that was made to fly and you trap him in a cage, and you deprive him from what he would normally get in that environment, he gets domesticated and he becomes another species; he can't maintain his originality.

And God, when He designed nature, that was a Bible. Before we had a printed Book to read, nature was the Bible. That is why Jesus preached about shepherd and sheep, and sower and seed, and these things. Why? He didn't need a written Word to preach about God, because God had revealed Himself in nature; God wrote it in nature.

David said, "The heavens declare the glory of God." [Psalm 19:1 -Ed.] God wrote His mystery in the stars, and there were people who could have looked at the stars and read the mystery, because that is a language. Because he said, "Day unto day it uttereth," what? "Speech. Night unto night it sheweth knowledge." [Psalm 19:2 -Ed.]

So, Satan has reconstructed the world. This is not the world that God made. Now follow me closely. When God made His Eden, it was not this world. Same earth, same trees, still living by air, still have seas and rivers, still have birds and animals, but the world around us has changed.

This isn't the world when your father and mother were alive, let us say, in the last sixty years, not this world. Did your father used to have a computer and a laptop and so on? Did he have a cell phone? Did your father know that man went on the moon and all these things? And could your father know that they are sending an unmanned space thing to Mars, bringing back images of Mars? It didn't have that in your father's time. Were there malls and all these things? No! It was a different type of world.

Back there, do you think you could have seen your great-grandmother walking in one of those 'navel-breaker' [clothes worn to expose the navel -Ed.] things, down here that they are wearing today, below [or above -Ed.] their navel? Brother, they would have locked her up in an insane institution. Now, if it was naked then, and it was crazy to do that, isn't it crazy now? But they don't call it crazy now. They laugh at you if you are in a long dress. Yet they take a picture of their old grandmother.

Look at our Sis. Raggay here, she is eight-two years old... (Sorry to say your age in church, but... I should have thought before I said it.) But I want to make a point here. Why I said it is because we have somebody here who could say, "That is true what you are saying, brother, because I know what the world was like there," eighty-two years ago. See? Before the war.

And then you see the time changed when women start to fall from that condition, when women started to come into pants. And then you see what the women came into today! Now they have mauve hair. If you saw a woman with mauve hair back there, brother, you would have thought she was crazy. You are talking about mauve hair, blue eyeshadow, red nails, I mean it is crazy. You can't think of that! You would have run and hide—little children would have run and hid. Your father as a young boy and your mother as a young girl, would have run and hid. They would have gotten scared: "What is this? Where did this creature come from?"

But something has happened in the people's understanding. It is acceptable, it is fashionable, it is advertised; it is nice. There are shops everywhere. And people call themselves beauticians, and they get degrees, and they study cosmetology, and people go and work hard for money, and more money is spent on that than groceries. That's statistics. More money is spent on cosmetics than groceries. Something has happened to the minds of the people! They have grown into it.

And the pressure on the world, even look at... We have young girls, and may God put the inoculation of the Holy Ghost through this Word in your hearts, my brothers and sisters, that your eyes of understanding would be enlightened, and you will realize, “No, there is a deformity.” There is a power and an influence pressing the hearts and minds to accept that. There is a spirit of blindness coming upon people to make them see that as beautiful. There is a manipulation and a control upon an unsuspecting people, that psychologists get in their heads and start to experiment with their brains.

Why? They observe nature. They take things out of its environment and then they put it in a next environment and they study it and realize, after a while it can't find its food. Because this one was made to smell its food, so God gave him a certain sense; he tracks that. This one has night vision; he goes in the night and moves around and finds certain things. This one gets up a certain time in the morning, he crows and he knows where to go and find food. And they all have a provided way that they are living in. They all have a God-given instinct and sense that they move around with, in their environment.

And then they say, “If we could take them out of that and make them still survive, and teach them a new way to get their food...” For the first time, when it dawns on you, you are in an environment, they have lights on all the time. You are accustomed with your night vision; you can't use that anymore to find your food in the night; they have you in a laboratory in a cage. Then they come and they hand [give -Ed.] you food. After four or five times they hand you that food, the fifth time, the sixth time, at that certain time of the day, you are looking for that hand coming with the bowl, you know. They start to change the way you think.

Friends, what they call the educational system, and school, and university, that is what it is. That didn't just, (boom!) an explosion; that's man sit down and say, “We are going to take you through your first seven years this way. And then we are going to take you through here. And now, when you reach this age here, we will start you now with sec... We found a new way to put things in your subconscious from small, so we'll bring you through 'Oscar', and 'Big Bird' [fictional characters -Ed.], and we'll give you 'Sesame Street' [children's educational program -Ed.], and we'll give you things a certain way there, for when we bring you up here. So from the time we 'hit' [give -Ed.] you Darwin [Charles Darwin - evolutionist -Ed.] over here and no God, it is easy." That was why the Prophet said, "Education is of the Devil." He said, "God has an education, but not that kind." The education that man...

Look, like even in the field of medicine... Let me show you something. Your mom and your dad, a few years ago, would know to read every bush around the house. They knew this is for fever, they knew this is for cold, they knew this is for there. And the children are growing healthy and they are not running down in any hospital day after day, and it's still the same sickness there. Because sickness is of the Devil, and all those devils were there during that time.

But they had a way they could have moved around. They had a way, your mother was the doctor. If something got up in your foot, she sat down there, brother, she cut open your foot with a razor blade, and she got that thing out. She got up in the night, she took the butter; she took the oil. If you got a thing on your head, you would take the old penny with the copper and the piece of salt fish, and that big bump would go down. That's right.

Now you go there and the man says, "I think you need a brain scan; fifteen hundred dollars. I think over here we are going to have to operate on you because I think this is cancerous. We would have to inject certain things in you and take this out of you." And this is what is going on.

Why? They educate those men, and then they make them an authority, and in your mind, they are a power. And then they tell you—they start to dictate to you,

“Okay, don’t come back in this hospital here if this and that happens! We are not responsible.” Or, “If you retaliate, we will get the psychiatrist for you. You are crazy, because you are defying our word!”

If man wants to control you by their word so much, and they would get psychiatrists for you, and prove you are crazy and then lock you up and sedate you, and they feel it is recognized because this man went to this school and learnt this, because it’s their system teaching that. And you know, when it comes to God now, you are trying to believe God’s Word, they tell you, “You are a cult,” and they want to lock you up in jail for polluting people’s minds. And you say, “But God’s Word, the Bible didn’t change. It is still the same Word.”

But now they are going to force you to sit down and listen to a woman preacher, and tell you, “You are prejudiced and you have discrimination,” if you don’t want women to preach. And now they exalt their knowledge above the Word of God, and they reconstruct the church, and they reconstruct the religious system, and they reconstruct the laws concerning medicine.

If somebody goes for bush there now, brother, they look at you funny; they kind of feel that you are crazy. Because now you must buy from the pharmaceutical companies, which are big billion-dollar industries, and you don’t even know what it has inside of it. And then, even on it, it is telling you, “And this has after-effects. If you are suffering with this, you can’t take this; you can’t take this. And if this happens to you after, go and see your physician right away,” but they could still sell it. Do you get what I am saying?

That is a pressure! That is to take away your control over your own life and establish their control upon your life. And it becomes the accepted way. And after a while, you yourself, if you don’t have the Holy Ghost, think people are indifferent when they rebel against that, because you get under the influence of the way they are designing and reshaping people to think and to function.

That has been the plan of the 'bird-catcher' I am talking about. He sits down and he is going to build his cage; he is going to build his kingdom. It's an Eden; he has a way to bring it up. Because when it is done, you are trapped and you are controlled and you are influenced, because the cage builder says, "We are going to make the cage so wide."

I have been to Auschwitz, in Poland, where they killed six million Jews. I went to Robben Island where they had Mandela [Nelson Mandela -Ed.] there, and I saw how they constructed those prisons, and I saw how it is designed to control and break the will, and remove the dignity of people, and to debase them.

You have about, with the Jews, this was the only place you had to stand up. People were here, here, here, here. [Bro. Vin shows the space with his hands -Ed.] They constructed that, so many people inside there, that means you can't sleep, that means you can't move to use a toilet; you had to use it on yourself right there. They debased you, they broke you, they made you feel that you were an animal; they made you feel you were worthless.

Why? That was the final solution to the Jewish question. Those were devils from the Euphrates River, the same Babylon. Babylon is built on the Euphrates River, you know that. It's symbolic. It is the Roman system. Designed for torture, and they constructed that. Why? Because they know after three hours standing there, you get irritable, you want to move, you want to do this, but you are restricted. Then you start to lose control of yourself because there is no discipline to handle that extent, because they are carrying you beyond your limit. Why? Because they know what the limit of the human being is, through tests, so when they are building this, they know how quickly they will break you.

How do you think they have those Iraqi prisoners in Guantanamo Bay and those places? Music – all kinds of music, loud, hard, in the night so they can't sleep, then big, bright lights. They know that after two days of no sleep, they will lose control. Do you get what I'm saying? How did they come to those places? Studied human behavioral psychology. How did they develop that science? By taking animals and birds and different things out of their environment, and then they reconstruct now, a world based on that.

And so, we are in a world, they put new values – if you wear a certain type of clothes, you are special; if you drive a certain kind of car, you are special; if you live in a certain kind of house, you are special. It is all false values, because it is all still dust of the earth, the Serpent's meat. And to live there, you have to be this man [flesh -Ed.], because that is not designed for the inner-man. Do you get what I am saying? And so, they create a class-system, and mind control, and they give an attitude to people; who feel they are better than who. And that's why, to deliver you from the present evil world of false systems and false values, false standards, it had to bring back the original Christ; the original God.

And when they said, "We have God," and they have a billion members, Roman Catholic system, Protestants, and all these things, and they put a homosexual bishop, openly confessed homosexual bishop there, and then he has man marrying man; that is what his theology taught him, and all the priests are pedophiles, with little boys; that is the character of the clergy, then God came down now, and took one born in a log cabin with one little window, and the Pillar of Fire came in there and God took a man with a seventh-grade education, who couldn't even read and write, hardly, and God shook science, shook medicine, shook theology, and demonstrated it in the Bible and challenged their system. Spoke things out of existence, controlled nature, raised the dead off the floor, that they certified them when they were already dead; came down with a sign and let the Pillar of Fire be photographed, and tested it and proved that the Light struck the lens.

And when God did that, God was showing... Well that Voice was saying, "God is not in those places. That is Babylon. That is of the Devil." Because that was the same Voice here: "Come out of her, My people!" A strong Voice, a Voice that had a Glory connected with It. When that was happening, friends, in this Day, we began to wake up. And he said, "Who Do You Say This Is?" [1964-1227-Ed.] What was it? It is the same Lord Jesus, come to do what? Deliver us, because the evil Age had come; it was built.

And he said, "I'll tell you what this place is here. It came through the agricultural civilization, it came through the industrial civilization, and now it is in the information civilization, and now the whole world is connected; the cage has been built. And now, the 'Tree' of knowledge in the midst of this garden, that everyone in this garden lives by... He has his Satan's Adam and Satan's Eve in his Satan's Eden, and the 'Tree' of knowledge is the 'Tree' in the garden – a knowledge-based civilization.

Do you see the picture? Is that a true picture? That is a real picture: a picture from the Bible, a picture in the present time; a picture that you see how the thing changed down through these years. Then when you see the reality, where do you take your stand? You say, "That was a nice thought, right? You know, I kind of liked how he explained that." Is that what you say? You say, "My goodness! Is this the world?"

Is that why It said, "Don't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by," what? [Congregation responds, "The renewing of your mind." -Ed.] Because Something got a hold of your mind to make you see this world as something not to be conformed to. It gave you its standards; it gives you your values. But a Word came and said, "A Thinking Man's Filter [1965-0822E-Ed.], a holy man's taste," and began to put in another kind of thinking inside of you, through another Word that opened and exposed that thing. And He said, “My Kingdom is not of this world.” [St. John 18:36 –Ed.]

And His subjects say, “We confess that we are pilgrims and strangers. Here we have no continuing city, but we seek a City whose Builder and Maker is God.”

And then you begin to understand, there is a reality about real Christianity. Not denominationalism; real Christianity, there is a reality about it. And that was for the Elected people, that they will not be deceived. A Truth was going to come at Evening Time: “It shall be Light at Evening Time.” And what was that Light going to do? The path to Glory! The path to Glory! Out of the cage and into Glory.

Like Enoch, like Noah and they, they came out of that perverted world that Cain and they built to trap the world. God dropped down, and the Mystery of the Ark, the Rain, and the Dove, a three-fold secret, to take them above this world and into a new world. They began to wake up to the Age, the kind of world they were living in, because Satan had built a kingdom, he had built an Eden.

You heard me say, there are engineers and contractors, architects of this world who designed it that way: gave you a credit card, gave you your picture on it; gave you some figures written down in the bank, that you have so much in the bank. It is just numbers on a piece of paper, it means nothing.

Do you know that banks don't lend you the money that you had deposited in the bank? Do you know when you deposit money in the bank, that is only an entry? What do they do when you carry ten thousand dollars? Do you know what they give you? A piece of paper. They type it on a computer and they give you a little piece of paper, and you keep that in your pocket. They make an entry. They give you a record of an entry; you don't see the money again.

Do you think that they have it in a big box, and when people come to borrow now, they go, take it out of the box, and hand it to you? No. That is paper money; that is not real. That is the thing that they print in a printery. And you print so much based on your mathematics, that you work out on the computer too. And they are controlling the whole world with that.

And you have a piece of plastic. And to prove it is just plastic, when the expiry date is finished, they bend it up, and they give you a new piece of plastic, with a next digit on it for the new year. Isn't that right? That piece of plastic represents your life savings, and your labor, and your sweat, and your toil, everything, and they can tell you in the morning, "Well, the bank has gone into bankruptcy; the system crashed."

That is why He said, "Buy of Me, gold, tried in the Fire, that you might be rich. Buy of Me, gold, tried in the Fire, that you might be rich." [Revelation 3:18 -Ed.] And when the fire comes on this Sodom Age, it is only one thing, it cannot burn, it could only purify. Hallelujah! What a place for believers to walk in this Hour, friends.

The god of this evil Age... You see, like speaking in tongues, is one of the low forms of manifestation of the Holy Spirit; the least of the gifts. Like wisdom, that was a glorious thing, because that is the Intelligence of God; far more exceeding glory. Well, the same way when people see demons, and they see a man, a 'coke' [cocaine - Ed.] addict in a corner, and a fly around his mouth, they see that kind of demon, that is a low kind. When you see one of the super demons of the world, high up, who constructs the world, who designs it; the principalities and the powers, the rulers of the darkness of the world, when you see the kind of intelligence they come out with, and they sit down there... See?

Like I was saying the other night, not the old Catholic priest who walks a few meters and then sits down, and then he goes down by the statue, he could hardly bend down himself to genuflect, and you say, "Look at that." And you say, "You see, that is powerless." See? No, friends! They are controlling the world. It's the cage.

Leaders, the leaders of great nations are caged. It is just that some people have better cells than some. Did you catch that? Some are in better cells than some. Some have toilets in their cells; some have toilets outside their cell. Some, they will bring your food to you in your cell, and some, you have to go down in the big mess hall and line up for your food.

He designed this world, the evil Age. It took Seven Seals to open to unveil Lucifer, who he is. He said, "They thought he had a fork and a tail." He made them think so, until he said, "No, it is the tale he told." It's his educational system; that's his tale he is telling the whole world. It is all these big university books and all of this; opened up the fourth dimension and flooded the world with knowledge – that's his tale.

And it takes the opening of these Seven Seals to loose you from that tale and the grip and the influence of that tale. It takes coming back to the Tree of Life to put the Mind of Christ in your heart, otherwise, you say, "Well, I believe the Message, you know," but you have a different idea about the system, and you have a different thought about your future, and you have a different idea of how rich you are. He played with you; he messed up your mind. He messed up your mind. Do you understand what I'm saying? That's right. And then he gives you a false idea of what happiness and peace are, and as soon as a crisis comes, you see you are full of fear; you see that you are willing to step on people to get your security. Do you get what I am saying?

So, it is not a kind of idea about, "Yes boy, that is the Word. I believe the Word." No, no, no. When the Word is in your heart and becomes anointed, then the Word masters the circumstance. Then out of the abundance of your heart, the mouth speaks. And when that mouth speaks, it delivers from this world.

We are talking about evangelism. Can we go into the Caribbean and deliver people? Do you see what it takes to deliver? He gave Himself that He might deliver from this evil Age. Do you think that it is a plane ticket? Do you think that you can go up there and say a few words to a few people and explain something you read in the Bible and learn? No, friends. It has to be that...

There is only one kind of deliverance – it has to be He again giving Himself. The form might change; it might be people. It might not be the Hoffman's Head; it might be a different kind of dirt, but it has to be He alone, because only He alone can deliver. Another mighty Angel came down to do, what? Say, "Come out of Babylon. Come out of that cage"; breaking the power and the influence.

'Habitations' speak of divine powers metaphorically. 'Habitations' – supernatural influences; a habitat that is designed to hold.

They have some of these zoos that they don't have to put them in cages—put the beasts in cages. They have one in Singapore that we were in. It is so scientifically built, it is one of the most advanced zoos in the world, and they know the limitations of all the animals. So they know a lion, he could only jump so high, and they know he could only go through so much amount of water, and if the water is that deep, then he can't handle that there. And they know this kind of bird, that it can't be in a certain environment, because it is depending upon certain things for its food and if you have that, you will find all of them will go there where that food is. And so, you could stand up and see the animals all there without cages, moving around like that. It's that kind of zoo there.

They want to come with prisons, because they can't lock up all those people behind walls and buildings, so they want to track them. And instead of all these walls, they put certain lasers and different things to control their area and their space. Why? Because the technology has advanced. Because when you go and you invade a country and you get two hundred thousand soldiers as prisoners, what would you do with them? You have to find a way to control that amount of people. Do you understand what I'm saying?

When you are dealing with mass cities, that through urbanization, people are leaving all the countryside and are coming around the cities for factory jobs and industry and all these kinds of different things, and they are leaving that kind of life because now they want to make more money and they want to be in the limelight, and that is pulling the people, how will you control all that city? Because that means more people will mean more crime. You have to have more surveillance; you have to have more methods of control. Do you understand what I am saying?

You see, this is what I want you to see. I want you to look at the world, because my whole subject here this morning is the realization of what we are in. In other words, I was closing up Old Year's on: "What is our view, what is our concept of the world?" And I said, "As we come into the year 2005, what kind of world are we seeing? Are you seeing the same old world that you have been seeing all your life, or are you seeing the world as it is revealed to us by the Message?"

The Word tells us that this is the insane Age. I'm trying to break that down for you this morning, and show you how they grew into insanity. The Word tells us that this is the Age of blackout and apostasy. They are worshipping the Devil, thinking that it is God they are worshipping, because they rejected Jesus Christ. Do you think they know that they rejected Jesus Christ? They are being so controlled with theology, and the mind, and they are so being given rituals to make them feel that when they pray, they are praying to God; to make them feel that when they sing, they are worshipping God, but it is being done so subtly that it is the Devil they are worshipping and don't even know it.

Until you get a lot of Message Christians get pulled there, and they can't even tell boundaries and they are crossing there, until they want to even impersonate some of those singers and sing like them, and bring the same thing inside the church.

Like the other day, it got me so upset. I opened this door here, they had some big thing playing through the sound system here with some crazy person, I don't know which part of the world they picked up that thing from. But it was a song now they wanted to learn, so they had their whole... And service was just finished, where the Word was preached.

But that is the unconsciousness many times that exists around the church. And when you come against things like that, people see you funny, because their minds can't even think on that level yet, so they don't see anything wrong. But they don't know that those are mediums that a certain influence is coming out.

Like Kirk Franklin and Yolanda Adams [American gospel singers -Ed.] and they came out with their 'Sweating in the Spirit' [a 3-in-1 workout program -Ed.], these demons from Hell, these modern-day Elvis Presleys and Pat Boones. They are not Christians, friends. These people are not Christians. They are projecting that. And those women are out in their tight leotards and they are sweating for Jesus, and Jesus' Name and different things, and their rap thing... That is not Christianity, friends.

Haven't you seen what ended up in the churches now, all those Pentecostal churches? This is where you have to have a 'filter', friends. This is where you... And the 'filter' is, what? 'A thinking man'. And 'a thinking man' is what? 'The man in the mind Age who gets the Mind of Christ'. And what is the Mind of Christ? The Seventh Seal has come down, and Seven Thunders blow the world out of you, and you see what God is. You see what the Tree of Life is, and you see what the perverted 'Tree', the 'Tree' of death is, and you realize that was only an impersonation; This is the reality.

Wake up, friends. You are pulling death into your souls; you are polluting your system. When you do that, you have a nice, little spring and you let a sewer run down inside your spring. Because these people are not governed by any Word, no Christianity, no standard; no conviction. They are not trying to fight the world; they are trying to make money. They are not on Jesus; Jesus is just a word that they attach on to the world and make it sound like Gospel, because the Christian environment represents so many people listening to music, and that is a market.

So, if you sing things attached with Jesus' Name on it, that means, you break into that market, you get thirty-five percent of that market, and you get thirty-five percent of the other side of the world, you are coming out good; you are lucrative. And when you are simple-minded and you don't have any revelation, you get trapped in all of that because you are not watching where your source is coming from.

And that is why Eve thought it was pleasant to the eyes, and good for food, to make one wise, but that was Absalom stealing the heart. Absalom was the Serpent. The Serpent was Absalom – the one who was right next to the Throne, the one who was perfect in beauty, the one who fell, the one who came out of his habitation and tried to come into a place he wasn't ordained to come, and the one who was cursed and went right down, crawling out.

That is why I tried to show you there, there is a big, major Absalom stealing the whole world as the leader of all the other Absaloms; the chief false prophet and the many false prophets, and in every part of the civilization that he has built, he has one there. He has sports models—sports idols, he has fashion idols, he has music idols, he has movie idols, and the people are in idolatry and don't even know it.

Because they are laughing at a man kneeling down by a statue. Sure, that is the ignorant kind, and the real debase idolatry, but when that statue starts to move, and that statue is funky, and that statue is talking to you, and that statue gets in your head, it is not a piece of concrete standing up there where you have to go to there now, brother, the picture is on your wall, and you sit down there, and the music in your head. It is the same thing as one of those Hindus and Buddhists and everything, and a Catholic bowing down to worship some image. It is the same thing.

Because in this Age, idolatry got on another level. Because if he keeps people in that there, he wouldn't catch the ones who say, "We leave Paganism to come to Christianity." But that is what Balaam did – he gave them things to eat, sacrificed to idols. What kind of idol was Balaam talking about? Because he believed in the same God as Israel, you know. He had seven altars like Israel. Wake up, friends. Wake up.

It's movie idols today; fashion idols. You see it and you want to be like it. Why? It steals your heart, it impresses you, and you start to grow in the taste. And next thing you find, the new thing comes out, you want that too. A new thing comes out, and you want that too; a new thing comes out, and you want that too. You are failing to see your addiction. You didn't realize what you are eating has things to get you addicted to it, because you are not reading the fine writing on what you are eating, and you are not seeing who is manufacturing that. Do you understand what I am saying? You are not seeing who is producing those goods. Remember, the Bride is called out. 'Ecclesia' means what? [Congregation responds, "Called out." -Ed.]

Listen. Habitation... I wouldn't even get past these words here; trying to explain what this Babylon, this present evil Age, what it is. 'Hold'. It becomes... From a habitation now, the next word used: it's a 'hold' of every foul spirit. A hold of every foul spirit. There is Holy Spirit, and there are unclean spirits. Both are looking for a body. God wants to dwell in man; Satan wants to dwell in man. Both are almost powerless without a body to dwell in. The choice is yours, every man is a free moral agent; you accept and you reject. The reason the world became Hell, is because they rejected Jesus Christ and they accepted denomination.

And they didn't see it was that they did. Do you know they didn't see it was that they did? Why? The god of this Age blinded their minds. They didn't stay long enough to see exactly Who Jesus is and what He is, and what results He is supposed to bring in a life. They say, "No, I go to church. I'm wearing church clothes because I am a Christian; nobody can't tell me I am not a Christian. Our church is preaching the Word." That is deception: "Our church is preaching the Word"? It is not, "Our church is preaching the Word"; are you living the life? Are the results in you? He said, "I will write My laws in your hearts and your minds. I will be your God and you will be My people. I will dwell in you and walk in you," is what He said. He didn't say, "Our church is preaching the Word."

The Word is a Seed. He said, "But that Seed falls on," what? "On the rocks." He said, "That is those, when It doesn't get deep, they have no roots." He said, "Next thing, It falls among thorns." He said, "That is those who have a lot of pleasure in their lives; lovers of pleasure, and it chokes the Seed." He said, "It falls by the wayside." He said, "That is those, as soon as they go to a church, somebody plucks It out of them: "Do you believe what that man said? Are you studying that so-and-so-and-so? You think that is really the Word?" Pluck It out. Only where It finds good ground, friends, It brings forth a hundred-fold.

So it is not that, 'our church is preaching the Word'; that doesn't help us in this Hour. We go beyond that; we go a little further than that. Aren't you glad how I say that? What if I started saying, "We are the Church, and we have the Word, and we are the Bride"? I'll deceive my own people. I will give you a false security.

That is why a lot of church people are locked up there and blind. Do you know why? They have Ministers there on a big ego trip, and their way to get the people to have confidence that they are serving God, is to let them feel that the Minister is of God, and the church is of God, and then nobody is watching their life anymore to see what they are bearing.

It is because of that deception I talk how I talk, because I want to get it exact, to say, "Make sure..." Because He said, "In that Day you will know I in you, and you in Me. And greater is He in you than he that is in the world." It has to get in there first, until Christ be formed in you. Christ in you is the Mystery. That is why I get in there, because I want to make sure I don't stick it in; I sow it. I want to make sure it is sown, and it is conceived, and takes root, and then you will see strong Christians coming forth.

Don't think that I am trying to criticize my thing and make people feel bad. No, no. It is my understanding. Why? In this Age, he makes people feel they are Christians, and they are not Christians. But you have to be Born Again by the incorruptible Seed. Amen! And it takes a man... He said, "When that ordained hand can hold that Sword, It will rip those veils of tradition from around the lives of the people that makes them serve a historical God or some ritualistic God and It brings them to walk in reality with the Presence and Power of God around them and in them." And that is the place. Ministering, what? An entrance, abundantly, into the everlasting Kingdom, making you written epistles read of all men.

And that next way is why they call all those people who are singing Christian songs, Christians. And then, this big Pentecostal Minister said, "Sister So-and-So.

Sis. Helen Baylor is going to come and minister.” She came down here with all her thing exposed all over, and all those Ministers, they said, “Oh, how nice it was.” Then on Sunday morning, they have somebody to sing a big ‘gospelypso’ [Gospel lyrics with a calypso beat -Ed.], and a big something else, and then the whole church is jamming and wining, and taking out things and waving. And then that same thing comes inside the church too, because they can’t even see, they have already gotten blind as to how the apostolic Church was on the Day of Pentecost. Do you get what we are talking about?

You don’t get caught in that kind of nonsense, friends. This is what we were called out of. We have been delivered from this present evil Age, this Laodicea condition, where they are blind and naked and wretched and don’t even know it.

Let me tell you, this Age is the Age where it’s a complete perversion of what it was in Eden. Not in Luther’s time, not in Wesley’s time; in this time. In this Age... Adam and Eve were naked in the Garden and didn’t know it, and in this Age, the Bible says, Revelation 3:18, He said, “They are naked and they don’t know it.” It is something here about their knowing – something perverted their knowing. Because, the same way God had full control over His Eden, Satan now has full control over his Eden. He had the same plan – “I will be like God.” He has had great success.

Friends, outside of this revelation: God Of This Evil Age [1965-0801M -Ed.] – the god of the Age; And Knoweth It Not [1965-0815 -Ed.] – the subjects, The Church And Its Condition [1956-0805 -Ed.], and Satan’s Eden [1965-0829 -Ed.] – the world he built and reconstructed to trap them and make it the cage. And they become slaves without redemption because they rejected the Redeemer.

The fellow down inside of there, saw a man come in with the pardon, with the President’s seal, and he didn’t believe it was the pardon. A man opened the door and said, “Johnny Crow, you are free,” but they didn’t know that they were free. That is the Age, because in their minds, they got messed up.

I think It is a good Word, this morning. I think It is a clear Word. I think It is a Word that should make us think and consider and ponder, deeply. And while we are hearing It, in our hearts, we are saying, “Oh God, Lord, don’t let me lose this vision. This Light that is shining on these things right now, and the way that I am seeing it while I’m sitting under the Light, Lord, let me hold that. And when I get out there, this could be a guiding influence, this will control me and influence my decisions and how I deal and respond to things there, so I could see my life come up on another level where I could have more power over the environment and the influence that is around me. Because now I see it was built and designed by Satan, the architect, and his angels, to enslave and trap man, until he owns all of them.”

They have the mark of the Beast, and the name, and the number, and it is written in their foreheads and in their hands. It got into their minds – he indoctrinated them, and their works – the very influence of that indoctrination. But the ones who escape, have the Seal of God, and That’s a repellent; That’s an inoculation. Why? And we see the breaking of a New Day, and we see earthquakes, 9.0 on the Richter scale, shook the planet.

Do you know what the scientists said, the Russian scientists? Oh, I came across that yesterday and I said I am going to read it in church here for you. It shortened the day. Oh, I thought I had it here. Oh, yeah.

The massive earthquake in the Indian Ocean that spurred the deadly tsunami claiming tens of thousands of lives over the weekend, was so huge that it caused the earth to rotate faster, shortening the day, Russian scientists say. The earthquake, which hit 9.0 on the Richter scale, caused the earth’s diameter to decrease.

Roman Vilfand, head of the Russian Meteorological Center, was quoted by Interfax as saying, “The earth’s axis changes constantly, it never remains at one point,” he said. “Because the diameter of the earth decreased as a result of a shift in tectonic plates, the speed of the earth, as it rotates around its own axis, could increase. This can cause an increase in the length of the day by several milliseconds,” Vilfand was quoted as saying.

Scientists in Italian geographical centers also, have concluded, meanwhile, that the earth’s axis has shifted six centimeters eastwards.

In Russia and in Italy, different sides. Oh, my. You know, there was something I was saying there, I made a statement, and even myself, in saying it, I kind of pondered, “Hey, what is this coming out of me? What is it I am saying? I better be careful of what I am saying,” when I was talking about this depopulation thing, and the nations. Some of you thought I was just talking out of my head, only to find out... Maybe I should take a little time and read this here, because this will also show you the present evil Age that we are talking about.

I was leaving the house this morning, and I just... The papers were on the table, so I just looked at it, I just glanced and I saw that they are also planning—Thailand and they are planning to investigate why they weren’t told before, ahead of time, and informed that the thing was coming. They said, “People had this knowledge, and it could have avoided tens and tens of thousands of people from dying, but they didn’t give them the information; no warning. And when they started to investigate the people, because they have treaties and they have different things set up to pass that information, they found out why.

Listen. This is this world that we are talking about, friends, that we sit down in here. You see, and that is why this revelation is so important to me. Because we are finding out that the very power and influence, and the very design, and the very objective to be achieved in this Hour, is something that started since he was in Heaven. And this is the Age, when the revelation came, it only came to help get the Elect out quickly, to uncover the scheme of the enemy, because this was the Age he was coming to be enthroned as God, and he did it by deceit.

If it is by deception he brought the whole world into death in the Garden of Eden, then by deception he is leading all of them away from Christ, which he has in this Age, that falling away has come, Jesus Christ has been rejected, and this Age has been blinded. And the mark of the Beast, the manifestation, he said is going to come, because they already took it when they rejected Christ. Because the soul that sinneth shall, what? [Congregation answers, "Surely die." -Ed.] That is why Hell is here.

And I am explaining to you, this morning, to break it down to show you how this world is constructed. Not what you see looking nice and shiny out there, friends; what it really is. It is designed to hold you; it is a cage.

Foreknowledge Of A Natural Disaster. I may not be able to read all of this, but I'll try to pick out the main things, because it is about three pages, and I don't want to spend time reading that whole article.

The US Military and the State Department were given advanced warning. America's Navy base on the island of Diego Garcia in the Indian Ocean was notified.

Why were fishermen in India, Sri Lanka and Thailand not provided with the same warnings as the US Navy and the US State Department?

In other words, all of them are out in the Indian Ocean, and they sent this information directly to the military people on a naval base. And to people in their country, who were in direct line for the hit, was not told anything.

With a modern communications system, why did the information not get out? By email, telephone, fax, satellite TV...? It could have saved the lives of [more than 80,000] people [and the death toll is rising].

The earthquake was a Magnitude 9.0 on the Richter scale, among the highest in recorded history. US authorities had initially recorded 8.0 on the Richter scale.

As confirmed by several reports, US scientists in Hawaii, had advanced knowledge...

You know Hawaii is a U.S. State; you know that; out in the Pacific there.

US authorities had initially recorded 8.0 on the Richter scale.

As confirmed by several reports, US scientists in Hawaii, had advanced knowledge regarding an impending catastrophe, but failed to contact their Asian counterparts.

You see, the tsunami comes after the earthquake. When it hits, that creates the wave. But the distance that has to travel, that will take a certain amount of time before it gets there to do any damage, and information travels faster than that; that travels at 186,000 miles per second. The tsunami is not travelling that fast.

I'm glad the Word travels fast. He beats the telegram by 24 hours. Oh, thank You, Jesus. That Angel is like lightning. That's right. Sometimes you say, "Boy, He talks too fast." No, no, no. He has that Devil beaten by a mile. You want to hear with your ear here and your mind here, it gets in the subconscious, and then He brings it back up to you. Sometimes you forget you even heard that, and you think that it is you thinking that, but He already put that inside of there, so fast.

Now watch.

Charles McCreery of the Pacific Warning Center in Hawaii confirmed that his team tried [desperately] to get in touch with his counterparts in Asia. According to McCreery, director of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's center in Honolulu, the team did its utmost to contact the countries.

This was the man who, on the Richter scale, picked up the thing. And that was on a map, okay? That is a big map, okay? And they were seeing exactly where that was hitting, and they were seeing the direction, and they knew those tectonic plates; they have all of that information there, and they knew exactly... Just like how you would track a hurricane and thing; same way. You see, this is in the realm of earthquakes, so they have the science developed for that; it is designed for that.

And his team contacted the U.S. State Department, which apparently contacted the Asian governments. The Indian government confirms that no such warning was received.

When they started to ask these people, they started to come up with all kinds of fabrications, so they had to check the source. They found out that they tried to block them, so they made them dig deeper. Watch.

Nine (9.0) on the Richter scale: The Director of the Hawaii Warning Center stated that they did not know that the earthquake would generate a [tidal] wave until it had hit Sri Lanka, more than one and a half hours later, at 2.30 GMT. [That is the time zone.]

Not until the deadly wave hit Sri Lanka and the scientists in Honolulu saw news reports of the damage there did they recognize what was happening... "Then we knew there was something moving across the Indian Ocean," said Charles McCreery.

[This] statement is at odds with the Timeline of the [tidal] wave disaster...

This is the people who are doing the investigation now. What they quoted there was the man who had the information.

They said: [This] statement is at odds with the Timeline of the [tidal] wave disaster...

Thailand was hit almost an hour before Sri Lanka...

They caught the man in his own speech.

... and the news reports including photographic evidence were already out. Surely, these reports out of Thailand were known to the scientists in Hawaii, not to mention the office of Sec. Colin Powell, well before the tidal wave reached Sri Lanka.

“We wanted to try to do something, but without a plan in place then, it was not an effective way to issue a warning, or to have it acted upon,” Dr. McCreery said. “There would have still been some time -- not a lot of time, but some time -- if there was something that could be done in Madagascar, or on the coast of Africa.”

The investigator said: The above statement ... is also inconsistent.

The [tidal] wave reached the East African coastline several hours after it reached The Maldives islands.

Now catch this. America, Europe, and these big industrial nations... I told you, Thailand and those places are sex tourism destinations. Now it is wintertime; everybody is going down there. I was reading in an Australian paper, that two days after the tidal wave, in Thailand there, people sat down there, outside, drinking.

They asked a man, “Aren’t you all scared?”

Some of the people were still up the mountains, afraid to go back into their own homes.

They said, “What? We came here for the girls, man.” He said, “I already have my eyes on a little bar girl there already. I’m hoping that I get the breakthrough tonight.”

See? Do you think that is something? In the Book of Revelation, when Moses and Elijah start to call plagues, they’ll start to curse God.

I’m speaking about the insane Age. How did they get in that condition? Watch the condition. This is not a quote from 1965 now, this is something that had happened two days ago. Watch the condition of the minds of the people. How are they deformed into this hideous condition? Do you know why? Appetite of pornography. Appetite of pornography. All that their minds could think of is sex and obscenity; they are not studying [thinking about -Ed.] their lives. Life for them is pleasure – lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God.

What is it? Serpent's seed. Serpent's seed. Because these are the things in Satan's Eden for his subjects. This is what he provides for his subjects: Casinos, nightclubs; orgy. He provides that for his subjects. That is how they have pleasure.

Wake up and see the world, friends, I am trying to bring this to you; the realization of it.

The [tidal] wave reached [Eastern] African coastline several hours after it reached The Maldives islands. According to news reports, Male, the capital of the Maldives was hit three hours after the earthquake, at approximately 4.00 GMT. By that time everybody around the World knew.

He said, "By that time everybody around the world knew it had taken place." Then how come they are saying, "We couldn't contact So-and-so-and-so"? He said, "It is inconsistent." He said, "By the timeline of the tidal wave, the time it was hitting those places, and the hour of the day, and when the earthquake took place..." Remember, the earthquake did some damage to the people along the fault line in Indonesia, but all the rest of the dead was because of the tsunami, which was the water from the sea, the tidal wave. All those people in Sri Lanka and things, those people in all those trains that got blown away and all these things, all in the East Coast of Africa, Somalia, and Kenya, and Tanzania, was the tidal wave; the sea began to rise.

Now listen.

It is worth noting that the US Navy was fully aware of the deadly [tidal] wave, because the Navy was on the Pacific Warning Center's list of contacts.

Moreover, America's strategic Naval base on the island of Diego Garcia had also been notified. Although directly in the path of the tidal wave, the Diego Garcia military base reported "no damage".

Where they sent the warning, there was no damage there; where the Naval base was; a little island that the British has control of, out in the Indian Ocean, where America has a base there with about three thousand soldiers. But that is where they saw first to warn. How many know in Africa, with all the slaughtering of people that they have there, they get their nationals out first? The U.S. helicopters go and pick up their nationals. These others go and pick up—the British go and pick up their nationals. The French go and pick up their nationals, and leave the people to be slaughtered. When it quiets down, they come back to control the resources further. But while they are killing, let them depopulate themselves.

Listen to me. All the places it hit: Sri Lanka, Thailand, East Coast of Africa, Indonesia; cultures, different cultures, different races, different parts of the world, listen to me, all of them are Third World countries. All of them are overpopulated places. All of those places are AIDS ridden places. No wonder they bawl and they say, “We are hearing all this money in the reports...” Like with Grenada, since Ivan [the hurricane -Ed.] back in September, “We are hearing all these things, but we are not seeing the aid reaching. We are hearing so much of millions, so much of millions, so much of millions, but we are not seeing anything really happening yet.” The disease is moving faster.

Do you know why the minds of the people sometimes cannot think there? Because they see a nice world, and as a Christian, they think everybody is a Christian out there, because they didn't view what world they are in. And when they don't view what world they are in, they don't believe that Jesus is coming just now, they don't know that the Hour is late, because they aren't seeing the condition. And the reason they can't see what they are deformed into, they can't know what they matured into, either.

But when you know what you were and when you know you are becoming the Word, and you know what matured you into That, you know what matured the others into that. When you meet the people you used to be on the corner with, and you came off the corner and they never came off, and you meet them, you see what they matured into, and you see what you matured into. Do you get what I'm saying? Then you understand. But the mind has to be functioning. The mind can't be brain dead; it has to be functioning. That is what the Holy Spirit is doing. The Holy Spirit is teaching you with things around you while you are walking.

Oh, Jesus. Let the musicians come for me, I am going to close, I don't want to preach all day today. Play for me and help me get down, because you see, I haven't even started to get into my Scripture—finish reading my text good yet, and I don't want to... I'll just try to find the place to finish it up; create a little feeling here. Because sometimes when you are hearing the Word like this, you want to give a place to consider in your heart what you did with your life.

Maybe this morning, you are not in the Old Year's night service, so the little kind of pumped up, geared up thing for the Old Year's night, and the change and the resolution is not around you right now, but now you sit here soberly, and now you are hearing the Word like this, and maybe now you are getting the conviction you didn't get the other night, and maybe now you are understanding better what I was trying to bring the other night – The Conspirators And Their Conspiracy.

This is the information revolution. This is the Age of information; the world is united. You have so many ways to send information, and this is the whole thing designed to save lives, but whose lives are worth saving? Do you get what I am saying?

If your house is on fire, and you have an old washikong (I don't want to use that word; sometimes they try to print this in a book and they can't relate to those words, but I tried to make it sound so old, way back there, what you called 'washikong', now you say sneakers,) and you have your computer, and you have your nice wardrobe, and you have your nice special things that you have in your home, your nice special things of value, and your house is on fire, will you leave all of that and run for the old thing that doesn't cost anything? You will try to get your valuables first. Do you get what I am saying? So under these conditions, it's what is valuable; who is valuable.

The effort that we are going to put in to try to save those same things, the kind of cost that it is going to cost us, and then, when we do that, we are saddled and we are tied with that, and then that is not making any constructive contribution. And since that could be eliminated and we don't have to touch it, and it is an act of God, then if nature is disposing of it, why should we want to save what nature doesn't feel bad to dispose of? Are you getting me?

Then tell me, what you are worth. You only have worth in the eyes of Jesus Christ. Because Satan uses you, and when you get old, he dumps you and he gets something else to use, but God takes you, Seals you away, and brings you back up in Resurrection to keep going on with Him.

That is why, choose this day whom you will serve, because God doesn't give up on you. When you get old, God is taking better care of you – a little extra love; a little something special. When you are young, He is helping you. When He gives you grace to stand, He stands by you and goes with you. He is my everything, that's why I love Him so.

“One of the few places in the Indian Ocean that got the message of the quake was Diego Garcia, a speck of an island with a United States Navy base, because the Pacific warning center's contact list includes the Navy. Finding the appropriate people in Sri Lanka or India was harder.”

Now how hard is it to pick up the phone and call Sri Lanka?

This is the investigator now. He said, “How hard was it to pick up the phone and call Sri Lanka?”

According to [Dr.] Charles McCreery, director of the Pacific Tsunami Warning Center. “We don’t have contacts in our address book for anybody in that part of the world.”

I wonder if they have any address for anybody in Trinidad. Sri Lanka is a place with civil war for years, the Tamil Tigers and they. Indonesia has the other Muslim group. If they are killing themselves, what are you, the neighbor, or distant neighbor across the Pacific on the other side, and brother and sister, and uncle and aunt are fighting and killing one another inside of there, are you going to cross the Pacific to save them, to let them continue fighting? You as a Christian will think twice, much more a political nation who knows, “You all have no oil. Do you all have oil? You all might serve as some strategic importance, but we have other people that we can use. We have allies there already, so I don’t need five allies in the same region. I have two good ones, that is enough.”

Who controls the kingdoms of the world? Who does it belong to? Who offered them to Jesus? That’s right.

Only after the first waves hit Sri Lanka did workers [of the] National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration’s Pacific Tsunami Warning Centre [PTWC] and others in Hawaii start making phone calls to US diplomats in Madagascar and Mauritius in an attempt to head off further disaster.

After they sat down and they saw so many places being levelled... Now, let me ask you something. In 2001, they were boasting on how Bin Laden had a satellite phone and they could have tracked him way up in the mountains in Tora Bora and all of those different places there, and they could have followed him. And they sent in the special forces because they knew where the bunkers were, and they went with the bunker-buster bombs. And it’s to show the power of their information, to find a needle in a haystack in any part of the world with the GPS system. How doesn't it work here?

What kind of world are we in? The cage. The cage. A habitation of devils. And you want to live here? A hold of, what? Every foul spirit. Because Babylon, that woman, who is the power there? The god of force. The Red Dragon is the Beast that carrieth this woman, and this woman has the whole world drunk – the root and seat of Satan. And where is the man of sin going to come from? Right in the Vatican itself. So, do you see what we are talking about? This is the world, friends.

I didn't realize that this would have tied in like that, then Something just told me to go to it and read this for you. But this is like looking at the present world here. Look at it.

"We didn't have a contact in place where you could just pick up the phone," Dolores Clark, spokeswoman for the International Tsunami Information Centre in Hawaii said. "We were starting from scratch." These statements on the surface are [inconsistent]...

Hear the investigators: These statements on the surface are [inconsistent,] since several Indian Ocean Asian countries are in fact members of the Tsunami Warning System.

He said, "How is it that you don't have an address, and all those nations are members?" Because there are a certain amount of nations that are members of this, that they have an information-sharing network: hurricanes, different disasters, different types of relief; they have their point of contact and so on if they have to do something in the region, for world security and everything else.

There are 26 member [nations] of the International Coordination Group for the Tsunami Warning System, including Thailand, Singapore and Indonesia. All these countries would normally be in the address book of the PTWC, which works in close coordination with its sister organization the ICGTWS, which has its offices [in

The mandate of the ICGTWS is to “assist member states in establishing national warning systems, and makes information available on current technologies [of] tsunami warning systems.”

That’s why we have world weather. How could a man stand up there in world weather, and they have the global satellite monitoring world weather, and they tell you... When they are giving you weather news and you are watching Panorama [local nightly news –Ed.], that weather doesn’t be weather in Cedros and weather in Port-of-Spain; they are giving you weather over the whole world: up in Europe, up in Africa; down in Asia. Isn’t that right? And you in Trinidad down here, see the weather and understand what weather is in different parts of the world. Do you know why? Because that’s information-sharing networks.

Although Thailand belongs to the international tsunami-warning network, its west coast does not have the system’s wave sensors mounted on ocean buoys.

Australia and Indonesia were notified. The US Congress is to investigate why the US government did not notify all the Indian Ocean nations in the affected area: “Only two countries in the affected region, Indonesia and Australia, received the warning...”

China is a billion people—1.2 billion, I think; India is a billion. You want those places to come down; they are getting too powerful. Both have nuclear power. Do you get what I’m saying? Think, friends. The god of this evil Age. Think.

The northern tip of the earthquake fault is located near the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, and tsunamis appear to have rushed eastward toward the Thai resort of Phuket. “They had no tidal gauges and they had no warning...”

The issue of the Ocean sensors is a Red Herring.

Hear the investigator again. They said, “All where they are trying to make up a fabricated excuse, that is a red herring.”

“We were not able to warn them because we had no sensors in the Indian Ocean.” This argument is a Red Herring.

They could have warned them by television, they could have warned them by fax, they could have warned them by email, and they would have gotten to other people in the areas. And you know the location, and you know when the earthquake hits, and what time, and you have the science, and you know how long the tsunami will take before it hits the coast, and what coast it is going to hit.

Why do people want people dead? You don't want to carry all this garbage... Who builds a new house and carries over all the old garbage? You are taking all the old pots, they are all black, different things. You are going to build a nice, new kitchen, you will carry the old fridge that is leaking back in the new house, right? Do you think they want to carry all of that in the New World Order? Oh, my. Jesus, I love You. I feel this is so real this morning, in my heart.

You see, because of what I preach, and what opened to me in the Word, from the time I see that kind of disaster, and I see the part of the world... And that is why I spoke it out there, just by my revelation. Because if those things are right, then why are you going to try to help those people? And I came and found this last night. And when I saw it, I said, “My goodness,” I said, “I'm thinking this thought, but I am not reading this.” But because of all those things I preach, then when I saw this, I said, “It is not I alone thinking that way.” But, you see, I am thinking that way from the Word. Somebody is knowing, “Why would they keep down that information? Over eighty thousand lives could have been saved.” But I know why they want those—you can lose lives there.

If that was in the North American continent, if that was to hit, let us say, Chicago, or hit New York City or something like that, or hit Miami, if that was to hit London or Paris, think. But watch the place it hit. One hundred thousand died there, poor people, no real value; who caught some fish. Maybe they have to find a next way to catch their fish. Now we have industrial fishing. So if that man has to come out with one little boat load of fish once a month or twice a month, that would not affect the world today, because, “We could revolutionize the whole fishing industry here. Now we have gotten rid of all the people with small boats, and it would have looked bad if we had tried to suppress them,” but now you get rid of them, you can develop it in a better way.

Do you think this world is evil in joke? They bombarded the minds of the people and made that Iraqi war look like, “We are going to free people and establish democracy.” Day and night, day and night, information bombarding the people, culturing their thinking that way, and information to save lives here, you shut that down.

What are they doing? With information, you are manipulating the minds of the people. The god of this evil Age is blinding the minds of the people with, what? Information. Give them five hundred channels, get them drunk. See sports twenty-four hours a day, see pornography twenty-four hours a day; whatever you want to see. See news twenty-four hours a day. That is the world.

Why? Who is the thought behind it, and what is the purpose? That is how they built the bird-cage. That is the cage-builder – the one who built it; the one who built this Eden.

The [latter] took place at 00.58 GMT on the 26th of Dec. [That information was sent] to The State Department and the US Navy...

They had the information, they sent it to the State Department, sent it to the U.S. Navy, and didn't send it to these people, and the U.S. Navy is in the same Indian Ocean with the rest of these people.

With modern communications, the information of an impending disaster could have been sent around the World in a matter of minutes, by email, by telephone, by fax, not to mention by live satellite television.

That information could have gone around the entire planet in minutes.

... "there's no reason for a single individual to get killed in a tsunami," [hear one of the scientists,] since most areas had anywhere from 25 minutes to four hours before a wave hit.

He said, "There was no reason for anybody to get killed, since they had from twenty-five minutes to four hours, and that information can get around the world in minutes."

Key Questions 1. Why were the Indian Ocean countries' governments not informed?

When I read this, a thought I had in my mind too, got confirmed. And listen to this. Because all of this now, the U.S. is going in, but they put all of these operations in the hands of a General and some battleships, and some marines who led the 'Iraqi Freedom'. And they said, "Why are they giving this to the military? These are humanitarian groups who go in and do this."

When you have disasters, and you have no security in your country, you want aid. And everything is going in under the cover of 'aid' and in the name of 'aid', and they have to get the aid quickly so they can't hold up people with red tape in the airports and ports, and harbors and these things. Then, regions that you don't have, you are not established strongly in, and don't have the kind of control you want, and where you want leverage, and when...

In the jungle, when a deer or a wildebeest dies, vultures want that, lions want that, leopards want that, hyenas want that; jackals want that. They all move in, until you have competition for that fresh kill. Predator and prey, friends. Wake up. Predator and prey.

The powers there: China, India, Pakistan, all of them, Russia, one land mass, nuclear; every one of them. They are not the democratic nations. And for balance of world power and containment, you have to be strategically placed, if you want to influence the politics and economics within a certain region. And if before you could have only made an economic invasion, now you can get in. Why? There is a new plan for a new world.

What is the Fourth Seal? The world uniting. What is the Sixth Seal? The Beast, the kings of the earth, and their kingdoms, and everybody has the mark. That is the world that is coming. Right now, the world is changing to produce the Sixth Seal. And this is the Hour of the Rapture. This is the time when He came down and is taking the Elect out, and is giving us the revelation and letting us see, the mark of the Beast is coming. "Look the Ecumenical Move, look at the nations, look at the power of the Catholic church, look at the financial system, look at what is taking place on the earth here; look at how the world is being reshaped. Get ready to go."

Lately, I've been thinking, I've got leaving on my mind. Do you have 'leaving' on your mind? Nature gave that kind of warning. What kind of warning the Word has been giving? Think. When you sit in a church where God is keeping you under the Light of the Word...

Did US authorities monitoring seismographic data have knowledge of the earthquake prior to its actual occurrence at 00.57 GMT on the 26th of December?

The question is whether there were indications of abnormal seismic activity...

Because remember, right now, if you go on a site with the U.S. Geological Society there, they are monitoring earthquakes around the world. On that site, they have every time of the day an earthquake hits, where their systems pick it up; where there is volcanic activity, where there are tidal waves; where there are earthquakes. And it will shock you to see, in the last six months, there were thousands and thousands of earthquakes. And it is telling you where every one hit, what it was on the Richter scale; how many times in different places. It is right on the site, you can see for yourself.

That is where they are monitoring the world. That is not some little local person putting out information, you know; that is the science, put there to keep the world safe, to keep the world informed in case of disaster, because one natural disaster can kill millions. When California goes down, there are millions who are going to die at one time, with the earthquake, plus the tidal wave; millions, friends.

Do you know what that is going to do to the American country? You can't imagine that kind of disaster. You sit down here and laugh; let me tell you, here will disappear too. If that little thing there... No island went down; some moved out of place a little bit, a few centimeters, but it shook the whole planet. When fifteen hundred miles long, three hundred miles wide, sinks forty miles deep and sends waves plumb to Kentucky...

Go on a map, friends. Don't just hear me say it; go on a map and see. And then go through the States, and see how many people live in each State, and watch the path of the thing, and see how many millions you come up with. And then think about what that is going to do to the global economy, and think about what that is going to do with countries like these here, and think of the United States, which is like the big shield for many of these countries here, think of what is going to happen when they lose that kind of power and stronghold, if we survive. Think. Think what your future is.

And when you sit here, think that the only future this world has is the Message, this is God's provided way to get the Bride out. While the world and scientists in the days of Noah had the atomic power and was going to shift the world away from the sun, and cause rain to fall, which they never had before, this time the atomic explosion is going to push it back into the sun and burn it. But before that happens, a Prophet came with a Three-fold Mystery to take a people out. That is the only way we are going out. "As it was in the days of Noah, so it shall be in the days of the Coming of the Son of Man." He destroyed the world by water; He will destroy it by fire this time.

And what part of the Message are we in, the beginning part? The Prophet is gone, the Message is gone. Forty years ago, judgment started in the earth; mercy has been spurned. We are in the year 2005. When I came in the Message, 1973, people were looking for the Rapture to take place. They were fasting and praying in churches, for it to happen in June, the next month.

I'm going into my 32nd year in the Message. I have become an old man, and the things that I have seen in the earth, (and hear me preach this morning,) think of what I know, that when I came in the Message, what I could have preached. Hear what I am preaching this morning. And think of the ones that God had in mind that He drew under this Word. That is the grace and mercy of God.

Why is the US military Calling the Shots on Humanitarian Relief?

Why in the wake of the disaster, is the US military (rather than civilian humanitarian/aid organizations operating under UN auspices) taking a lead role?

The US Pacific Command has been designated to coordinate the channeling of emergency relief? Marine Corps Lt. Gen. Rusty Blackman, commander of the 3rd Marine Expeditionary Force based in Okinawa, has been designated to lead the emergency relief program.

Lieutenant General Blackman was previously Chief of Staff for Coalition Forces Land Component Command, responsible for leading the Marines in Baghdad during “Operation Iraqi Freedom.”

This is not a pen-pusher General behind a desk; this was the man who led the thing in Baghdad that ousted Saddam Hussein to take the oil resources. Why is this man going into humanitarian things with all these marines? People said, “What is happening here with these...” When disasters take place, doesn’t a hungry man look to loot? Why? That is a chance for him to get food (right?) that he doesn’t have to pay for. How many kinds of looters do you know? Are you getting me? Just make sure he doesn’t loot your mind. Just make sure he doesn’t break in and steal your mind, and fill up ‘up here’ with garbage afterwards.

They said: Why is it necessary for the US to mobilize so much military equipment? This pattern is unprecedented...

Let me read one more for you. I told you I would have read this for you, from the message the other night. This is where they are harvesting the human organs, and this was from about three or four different websites. So, it was about ten different sites that had this article posted. It appeared in Saudi Arabia – an article from Brussels, based on alleged secret European military reports. And this came out of secret European military reports.

[Saudi Government Daily Accuses U.S. Army of Harvesting Organs of Iraqis – Ed.]

... the U.S. military in Iraq is harvesting and selling human organs.

Secret European military intelligence reports indicate the transformation of the American humanitarian mission in Iraq into a profitable trade in the American markets through the practice of American physicians extracting human organs from the dead and wounded, before they are put to death, for sale to medical centers in America. A secret team of American physicians follow the troops during their attacks on Iraqi armed men to ensure quick [medical] operations [A secret team of American physicians follow the troops during their attacks on Iraqi armed men to ensure quick medical operations] for extracting some organs and transferring them to private operations rooms before they are transferred to America for sale.

The reports confirm the finding of tens of mutilated cadavers or cadavers missing parts. Some were found without a head. The American military command could not offer reasons to explain the bewilderment about the missing parts...

You see, the Prophet preached, “Science is of the Devil,” on the message God Of This Evil Age. [1965-0801M - para. 129 -Ed.] When that Second Ride was going forth, they were mixing the test tubes. This is the Age of genetic engineering, hybridization. I will read for you too where they said that they have pigs with human blood in them right now. They have mice with human brains inside of them. Genetic engineering, biotechnology – taking one species and bringing it to another species; cloning, because they want to grow things for their experiments to extend man’s life; the life-span of man.

What is the use that you have ten billion dollars and then you are suffering from diabetes and they can’t help you? What is the use that you have ten billion dollars and you have a bad heart and you can’t even digest your own food, and nobody wants to give you their heart; and you stand a chance of a good life – a dead Iraqi with a bullet in the head, and you will get a heart, a good, live, heart better than what you have, to extend your life so that you can enjoy your ten billion?

This has been going on for years, friends, but just this article, I am reading to show you: war – the military, Second Seal, sword; taking peace from the earth. And the experiments now, the scientists who want to clone, instead of putting pig valves in man’s heart through the Genome project. And the unlocking of the secrets of heredity, and knowing, if you will inherit a sickness, you can bypass that – “We can manipulate the genetic code, and so, your children wouldn’t have it, and you wouldn’t have to adopt a child; you can go and have a child.” Because you stand to adopt one and all your inheritance will go to one who is not even your child from your loins. Abraham was worried about that. God said, “No, no, no. Eliezer wouldn’t get it; I am giving you a son.”

Well, science is saying, “You don’t have to worry about that either, I am giving you a son.” You have defective genes in your family. If you go and have a child, you will bring forth a ‘mongoloid’. [Down syndrome child; a deformed, a misshapen person –Ed.] “No, we will get rid of that; you wouldn’t bring forth any mongoloid. We have unlocked a secret here.”

We have unlocked a secret too – we are not bringing forth any Baptist again, not bringing forth any Methodist, not bringing forth any struggling Catholic with an idol; it is bringing forth a Super Race. We have found a Mystery to divide this Word, to bring a Power back in the Church that will change these old, vile bodies; bring a new species of Christians. Oh, my! Think of what it has been, friends.

The reports confirm the finding of tens of mutilated cadavers or cadavers missing parts. Some were found without a head. The American military command could not offer reasons to explain the bewilderment about the missing parts...

Because the world is saying, “Look all these bodies have organs missing out of it, who cut them open? Where did they go?”

They said, “Well, we can’t tell where they went,” because that is contrary to Iraqi religion and things.

Now watch.

... [they suggested] that this may have been caused by the penetration of bullets to the [missing] parts. But these excuses cannot be medically accepted.

They said, “No, we used a kind of armor-piercing bullets, and these exploded on contact, because we were kind of fighting in a region there. So, when we shoot one of those bullets there, that will blow a man’s head off clean, you know; that will blow the kidney out of a man.”

They said, “Well, oh, that is a special bullet, because that cut the kidney out and leave every other part together.”

How wouldn’t you read this in TIME magazine? How wouldn’t you read this in, you know—see it on news on CNN, or on Fox News? Who is controlling the information?

The reports also confirmed that the burning of bodies was deliberate in order to conceal the crime of organ extraction. [The reports] further indicate that American medical teams have [made] active and suspicious moves in Iraq to recruit some Iraqis to guide them to dead and critically injured individuals to engage in the extraction of organs. These teams offer $40 for every usable kidney and $25 for an eye.

Because, US$25 is plenty of money there, you know. When that gets in the States, it sells for about twenty-five million, you know. Do you get what we are talking about?

The reports confirm the finding of mutilated bodies in Fallujah. The reports indicate that the cadavers are immunized inside special cars to prevent the spread of the plague until the bodies are buried by their relatives.

The reports have indicated that [the] number of those killed in ‘Abu Ghraib’ and other prisons were subjected to operations for extracting their organs.

A lot of the people who were killed in the prisons too, they had there.

Following their mutilations, the bodies were discarded far from the prisons to conceal the facts. The reports revealed that the American forces restricted the media by force to prevent them from getting near the scenes and recording the events. But the relatives of the Iraqis are aware of these facts. The reports have [also] indicated that the military forces of the European allies have noticed the absence of organs from the cadavers that were dealt with by the Americans and have reported to their high command, which instructed them to maintain silence and to avoid the discussion of the subject due to its gravity, while the military and intelligence high command have written secret reports about what was observed by their forces and sent them to the European ministries of defense for their information.

Because remember, it is the United Nations' troops out there, from all different countries. And the British and them were seeing a lot of bodies that were under the American control in the area they were controlling, missing parts, so, they wrote up their reports and they sent it to the high authorities, what they had seen happened, and then they told the people, "Keep that quiet. Don't start anything with that here," and they shut down that information. But they made the reports and they delivered it to their high command.

Brother, what a Day we are living in. Oh, I love Him. It's a challenge to accept, friends. Let us rise to our feet.

That word, 'cage', hear what it means: 'imprisonment'; 'prison'; 'imprisonment'; 'a watching'; 'a keeping watch'; 'persons keeping watch', 'a guard'; 'sentinels'. Do you hear what that word means? A cage – where they imprison you and they keep watch over you; surveillance society.

"We can track you wherever you go around the world. You are in the prison, and we know what you eat; we know when you spend." Bring you to a cashless society; make you use credit cards. At 11:20, you went to Hi-Lo [supermarket -Ed.], you paid for such-and-such. That was connected to a Hi-Lo register that said, "You bought ham, cheese, lamb, jam; juice." And it said, "Then you went down to this store and you bought a shirt and a pair of shoes." And then, it said, "You bought this on the Internet, at this hour.” Imprisonment, with a guard watching you; a cage. Babylon has become the cage.

Look at me, I just finished reading my Scriptures. Hell follows Death, friends. That is what the Fourth Seal reveals. The Fourth Seal reveals that it was Lucifer and a group called Hell, and he was named; he is called Death. Hell and Death were personified in this uniting time. And it was an Eagle, the fourth living creature, that sounded to uncover that. Doesn't this make you feel like crying out, “Even so, come Lord Jesus”? Doesn't it make you look up and lift up your head, friends?

I want to sing the song: It's a challenge to accept, it's a faith to rise into, it's a way I can show the world that Jesus Christ is true. [#575 - Songs That Live -Ed.] That's my desire, even at this very moment, that I can show men and women that Jesus Christ is true. If I can say, “Flee from the wrath to come! It is already breaking across the face of the earth.” If I can give my every breath to see this Message sweep and catch the Elect, awaken them and bring such a charge of faith to put us into Rapturing Grace, I would have served my purpose. Because what is coming, friends, and already is here, is only getting greater and stronger. It's only by the grace of God.

And that grace, look at that grace among us this morning, look at the place we can sit, you know; look at the Word we can hear, friends. And I pray that the revelation of the Word brings such a transforming effect in your heart, in the way you think, in your life; and my young brothers and my young sisters, that God will make this real and write it in your hearts, (amen,) that you will be a real son and a real daughter of God, with the Love of God, amen; with the joy of the Holy Spirit. You will not feel inferior; you will carry yourself with dignity. Amen. You will know that God has called you, He has chosen you, because you belong to Him.

He gave His life that we might be delivered from this present evil Age. It doesn't mean it would remove us from the world, but it means to deliver us from the power and the grip and the influence of this world, that we can walk in this world free, outside the cage, not in the cage; the house of Hell gives way around your life, where he has caged up the rest of the world.

Hallelujah! For I've got to prove, let us sing.

[#575 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

*... I've got to prove
I'm one in a million,
And I've got to show...*

Oh, they were proudly displaying that Blood on their chests.

*I've got to prove I'm not like
those from Satan's Eden,
I've got to show that I'm a person
that this world...*

Oh, sing it again: For I've got to prove...
He is proving His Word by believers.

*I'm one in a million,
Amen.*

*I've got to show the power of the Blood;
Oh, and I've got to prove...
... not like those from Satan's Eden,
I've got to show that I'm a person
that this world isn't worthy of.*

Oh, *it's a challenge to accept. Amen.
It's a faith to rise into.*

Oh, *it's a way I can show the world
That Jesus Christ is true;*

Oh, it's a life to live, a testimony...

Oh, living for Christ, standing every test.

CHORUS:

*For I've got to prove
I'm one in a million,
I've got to show the power of the Blood;*

*I've got to prove I'm not like
those from Satan's Eden,
I've got to show that I'm a person
that this world isn't worthy of.*

*Oh, true representative of Christ, this morning.
In the field that you've been placed.
Oh, the joy of the life...
... of your life with Him,
Always a-glowing...
Oh, living humbly,
following the ways He showed,
Oh, a true witness of Christ, in this Day.
This evil Day, friends.*

CHORUS

*Oh, you mount that White Horse, this morning, the Word, that Horse with a military prance. Amen. He's searching lives, right in this Hour.
... of the Blood;
I've got to prove I'm not like
those from Satan's Eden,
I've got to show...
... that this world isn't worthy of.*

*Oh, who are the ones that's going to stand,
And keep a testimony clean?
Oh, in the midst of an unbelieving world,
We'll keep looking to the unseen;
To really know, oh, that we will overcome,
And receive His promise, oh, to sit on His Throne.*

CHORUS:

*For I've got to prove...
I'm one in a million,
Oh, thank You, Lord.
... the power of the Blood;*

*I've got to prove I'm not like
those from Satan's Eden,
I've got to show...*

Oh, come on brothers, let us sing it: For I've got to prove.

... prove...

Sons of God in the last days, a mighty marching army rising up. Oh my, it feels good to talk to the brethren.

*... prove I'm not like
those from Satan's Eden,
I've got to show...*

Oh, let us sing it: It's a challenge to accept.

... to accept,

It's a faith...

Seven Thunder faith.

It's a way I can show the world

Oh, that Jesus Christ...

It's a life to live...

... a testimony blameless,

Oh, and living for Christ, standing every test.

CHORUS

Oh, come on sisters: I've got to prove, amen, that you're one in a million. Oh, you've got to show, my sisters, show the power of the Blood. Oh, confess that faith: "I'm not of this world." You are a daughter of God, you're not a Jezebel; you're a daughter of God. Amen.

Everyone: For I've got to prove.

... prove

I'm one in a million,

I've got to show the power of the Blood;

I've got to prove I'm not like

those from Satan's Eden,

I've got to show...

... that this world isn't worthy of.

I've got to show... this world...

Oh, I've got to show this world.

... that this world isn't...

Oh, one more time: I've got to show this world.

... that this world isn't worthy of.

One more time, all around the building: I've got to show it. That's the conviction this morning. Hallelujah! Oh, just praise Him around the building. Give Him honor and glory. Hallelujah! Thank You, Lord. Thank You, Jesus. Thank You, Lord.

Let us just sing: Jesus, I love you so, and I want You to know that what You've done for me is not in vain, and I will stake my claim, on Your holy Name. Oh, how I love, I love You so. [#2 - Songs That Live -Ed.] Amen.

He gave Himself for us. He shed His Blood that He might 'deliver' us. The word means 'a rescue', 'a rescue', a deliverance out of this evil where we are gripped, where we are caged, where we are blinded, where we are manipulated and exploited; where we are deformed. He caused Satan to loose his grip by the baptism of the Holy Ghost and Fire – a total annihilation of sin under the Seventh Seal. And Seven Thunders, the hidden Secrets of Redemption, opened up to raise you up into a new life in Christ.

Oh, my! And we look around in the Age and we see the hideous condition, the people want to look like beasts: tattoo on their heads, rings in their nose, body piercing; piercing all parts of their bodies; clothes designed to reveal their body piercing and their tattoos, and they put it in certain parts of their bodies to attract attention to that place, to send sexual messages – beasts.

Way back in 1965, the Prophet said, "Watch what they call themselves: 'Cats' and 'Beatles' and 'Monsters.'" [1965-1125 - para. 26 -Ed.] He said, "Watch that deformed prostitute church. What kind of pregnation did she get? Look what she is bringing forth." Her virtues have been marred, the bedding ground has been defiled. She has committed adultery and fornication with organization, and she is bringing forth reprobates. They are trapped in the depths of Satan, depending on church-joining and form of religion for salvation; knows nothing about a New Birth.

But the Word has birthed a people, washed Her clean, dressed Her, filled Her with the Spirit and put Her on display as a real representative that Jesus Christ lives, and this Word is true, friends. Think of what you are called unto. A Word that separated us from this world, that when they look at us, they know we are not of them, they know we are another species; we don't fit in that world. We don't fit in a nightclub, we don't fit into one of those cinemas, we don't fit into one of those discos, we don't fit in with that crowd that is swayed by that kind of music, we don't fit in there; we don't fit into those fashions. Neither can they fit in this Word, neither can they fit in this Fountain of Living Water; neither do they have a thirst for It.

Why? Because there were two seeds. The good Sower sowed the Wheat, and the evil sower sowed the tares. The tares are being bundled for the fire, but the Wheat is being gathered in the Garner. Did Jesus teach that? That's the time, friends. Oh, my.

I am going to continue right here. Who knows how long I am going to take on that now, to bring this realization of this insane Age; how the people have grown in this insanity. How the world is designed to trap them and hold them captive, manipulate and control and deform them into these kinds of hideous creatures: guns in their school bags, drugs: they want cocaine and marijuana, they want LSD, they want ecstasy; they have AIDS in their bodies; brother, they will shoot and kill, they feed on pornography, they love violence; they love to kidnap. What have they become? Who has sown that seed? Who has produced that crop? Hell. Hell is here.

Young men, know what you want in a wife. Young women, know what you want in a husband. Look for a man who prays, a man who walks in the Word, a man who surrendered his life to God, a man who loves Jesus Christ; a man who has values. Young men, you don't look for some little sex goddess outside there who wants every filthy fashion, whose mind is just filled with lust and all kinds of evil. You don't want that kind of thing. You don't want somebody who is in church and their heart is far from God. You want discernment. Oh, my.

Because demons are in flesh, friends, and God is in flesh too. Life will connect with Life, and sin connects with sin. This is not the Age your father and your grandfather and your grandmother and great-grandfather lived in, friends. This is the evil Age. This is the Age where gross darkness is on the earth and upon the people. This is a different Age, friends. In every Age, they had to die to go to Hell and die to go to Heaven. This is the Age, Hell is opened and Heaven is opened. And there are people in this Age who will go to Heaven without dying, and people who will be in Hell without dying, friends. This is the Age.

But it has been changed around you, and nobody could have discerned it. It took a Prophet to come and take the Scripture and uncover it. It took a man who had been in Hell and in Heaven to come back and unfold it. And we have watched it grow. Because when he was here, it was in infancy. Look what it is today – the laws are passed, they are protected by rights, they can marry; everything has come out of the closet. He never lived to see these things, he saw it in vision. We have grown up with it around us.

This is the Hour, friends, God is separating, so the atomic bomb can clean off the earth. And look at nature already – volcanic eruptions everywhere, nature is groaning; in labor. What for? Those sons of God. Where are those sons of God?

It can only groan like that when there is a Message coming forth. It can only groan like that where there are sons of God raised up under birth pains; the Church under birth pains. That is why it can't be a social Gospel. It is a Word to bring labor on the Church so She doesn't want a bench-warmer, She doesn't want just some ritualistic formal person; She wants something that could give Life, so the Church could have hope to go in the Rapture, friends.

May God bless you. Let us bow our hearts. Bro. Sam, come and pray, my brother. We have a prayer request for Sis. Carol Alexander, who is requesting prayer for chest pains due to heart muscles. She is at home.

Our precious Sis. Carol, we want to remember her; take her upon your heart today. And if you have a special request, you have heard His Word today, all around the building, wherever you are... This is the beginning of the year, friends. We were here the night before, before God's Table, and I trust that even now, there is conviction going deeper in your heart, and you have purposed to rise up and live with Godly principles.

And I pray that whatever you have need of right now, let us believe God. God wants to give. He is not emptying us out not to fill; He is emptying out to fill. So, if you are emptying out, let God fill you, my brother, my sister. Amen. You ask Him and believe. If you see weakness in your life, ask Him for strength in those places. If you see insincerity, ask Him for sincerity. Whatever you examine yourself in the Light of the Word, as we unite and our brother pray, and we link up together, if two shall agree as upon touching anything, it shall be done, in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Let us all, in the rooms, on the outside, wherever you are, take these few moments here now, no moving around, no going in the restrooms or anything like this, let us just lock in right here. All these precious saints from Tobago who came over the weekend, would be going back this evening, going back tomorrow, that we can all advance on in the cause of Christ. Let us believe Him right now. He is the All-Sufficient One among us. Thank You, Jesus.

[Bro. Samuel Johnson prays -Ed.]

Amen. Amen. Why don't you turn around and bless your brother and sister with a real Holy Ghost blessing. Greet them, tell them you love them. "For by this Love shall all men know that you are My disciples, when you love one another." [St. John 13:35 -Ed.] And Jesus, I love so. What You have done for me is not in vain. As we sing that.

[#2 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

*... I love You so,
And I want You to know,
Oh, what You've done for me
is not in vain.*

And to all these from Tobago, God bless you; take you back safely. We love you and appreciate you. We're glad that you could have been here with us. To all those up in the islands: Tobago and Grenada, St. Vincent, Dominica, St. Kitts, St. Lucia, Happy New Year. May God bless you. Bless each and every one with a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Receive all our love. Amen.
