[#573 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

*He's the One that means the most
He took us in the Inner Veil
To reveal Himself more privately.
Here we are in perfect step,
In the promises of God.
Oh, that Angel with the swept-back wings,
He's the One that means the most.*

Amen. Praise His wonderful Name. We certainly will like to greet you all this morning in the precious, wonderful Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. What a blessed privilege to gather in His Presence. Amen?

David said, "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord." And how thankful we are that there is a place we can come in this dark Age, in this dark Hour; we know we can come and worship Him in Spirit and Truth. He promised where two or three are gathered in His Name, there He is in the midst. Amen.

We have a little dedication here. I would like to just ask for your attention at this time as we dedicate this precious little jewel that God has given unto Bro. Dave and his dear wife, little Rebekah Lily.

The Bible says [Psalm 127:3 -Ed.]:

and the fruit of the womb is his reward.*

[Psalm 128:1-4 -Ed.]

What a blessed thing it is, that not only for ourselves that God can give us security, but even for our offspring. The promise is unto you and to your children, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. "If you believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, you and your household shall be saved," the Bible says.

And what a blessed privilege we have, to not christen them as the present modern trend is, but we can look back in the Bible and see that they brought their little children unto Jesus, the Bible says. They were not at the age of accountability; they were too young to repent for their own sins and so, God made a provision for them. That is what dedication is. Joseph brought his two little sons, that his father, Jacob, might bless them. Hannah took little Samuel into the temple for Eli to bless the child. She offered him up unto the Lord for a life of service.

Down through the Bible that's the pattern, and how we believe and are persuaded, this great God of the Bible is the same yesterday, and today, and forever. And here, even in these things, the Holy Spirit being so mindful, has reawakened our understanding to these scriptural Truths. We can bring them, and by faith, place them in the hands of the Almighty God, Who is faithful, Who stands by His Word always, to watch over It and keep It, that if you abide in Me and My Word abides in you, you can ask what you will.

Gracious Father, we are thankful, dear God, for our precious Bro. Dave and his wife and this great blessing, oh God, that You have blessed them with, giving them a heritage, Father, giving our sister a safe delivery; watching over them and keeping them, oh God, that they can be standing here in health and strength, even with their lovely new addition to the family, also prospering in health.

Truly dear God, You know how to work in the hearts and lives of Your children. And dear God, when You see their desire to take Your Word into their hearts and to walk in Your Truth, in Your Light, and to serve You, dear God, for You said if we seek first the Kingdom of God and its righteousness, all other things shall be added unto us.

And You know the kind of gifts, and how to bless us, because of the purpose that You have ordained for our lives. And knowing, oh God, how to lead us in life's journey that You might reveal and make known Your will and Yourself unto us, that we truly might come to love You and to know You and to serve You, and to stand as Your representatives upon the face of this earth, "The light of the world and the salt of the earth," You said. That's what we are. That's what You've called us to be, Father.

May dear God, as we bring little Rebekah Lily before You, truly oh God, such a beautiful name that they have named the child. Looking, oh God, at the way she came to them at this time and the things in the Scripture that You impressed upon their hearts, and the character of Christ revealed in His people, in nature; something oh God, that speaks out of You, Lord, that they could identify themselves with, believing it has meaning and purpose and not just looking for the name of some famous person or movie star in the world, or something like that, but believing oh God, that this gift that You have blessed them with, that she has come with meaning. You have a purpose and an intention behind her life, by sending her unto them at this time.

May You bless this little girl, Father, with health and strength. And may she be raised up in the environment of a godly home, with a godly influence upon her life; that she will be trained up in the way of the Lord, and she will grow to honor You, that Your Light will shine through her and the purpose that You have intended for her and the place that she will take in Your economy, will be fulfilled to Your honor and to Your glory, and it will be an honor to the parents to have raised her, fulfilling this sacred charge that You have committed her into their trust; that it will be a reward for them on that day, Father, because they have been faithful in this vocation as parents.

We place this little girl into Your mighty hands, asking that Your Divine Presence will so surround her, You will watch over her, You will keep her sheltered beneath Your precious Blood – this place of safety, oh God, where we know she is secure, the greatest Security, oh God, that she can have, where the Seal of the Holy Spirit will be upon her life, the great hand of the Almighty God will be her protection, and she, dear God, will prosper in all things. Grant it, Father.

We dedicate her today unto You for a life of service, giving You thanks and praise, Father, and praying that You will bless the parents, Lord, and You will give unto them all that it will take, Father, to fulfill this sacred obligation and to raise her for Your glory. We now dedicate little Rebekah Lily Baboolal unto You for a life of service, in the Name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Our precious Sis. Edwards here, you know, she is due for an operation for a hernia, but she and her husband are standing here with faith, believing in their hearts, looking unto the Lord Jesus Christ, the Healer of all our diseases. He was able to take care of every affliction, every disorder in the human body. He knows how to deal with each and every one of us.

And they are just believers and they are trusting Him. We would like to pray on their behalf today, that God will be gracious and grant our sister deliverance. Amen. That even now, He will strengthen their faith and look unto Him, Who said, "I am the Lord Who healeth thee of all thy diseases," and how to call upon the elders, let them pray the prayer of faith anointing them with oil, knowing the prayer of faith shall save the sick and the Lord shall raise them up.

So, we will like to unite our faith, and if you have a special request standing out in the audience today, may God be gracious to you also. We have seen how God has healed the people right here in our midst recently, different cases, severe cases. He is still the same God this morning. "If two shall agree, as upon touching anything, it shall be done. It is not by might nor by power but by My Spirit, saith the Lord." Amen.

Gracious Father, we stand here today as the church of the Living God, believers assembled in Your Divine Presence and have in our midst, dear God, our precious brother and his dear wife. Lord Jesus, they have sojourned with us down through these years, faithfully, oh God. They've loved You, they have taken a stand for Your Word in this Day in which they are living in, and today they are in need, coming forth to be prayed for, dear God, looking unto You, Father, the Healer, the One Who paid the price for all our sins on Calvary's tree.

You were wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement for our peace was upon You, and by Your stripes we were healed. Upon You were laid the iniquity of us all. And oh God, knowing that through identification with You and receiving what You have done, oh God, with a heart of unfeigned faith, we stand, oh God, justified in Your Presence, that we can have faith and ask, oh God.

You said the reason we don't receive is because we don't ask. If we ask for a bread, You will not give us a stone. If we ask for a fish, You will not give us a serpent.

You are the Giver of every good and perfect gift. That's our confession today, Father. In You there is no variableness or shadow of turning. Great is Your faithfulness. You are the God of the amen, the God of the unfailing promise, the Faithful and True Witness; the God Who stands by Your Word.

And we pray and ask that Your grace, Lord, will drop that faith into the heart of our sister today, as she stands here with this hernia condition, God, that You will deliver her from it completely, in the Name of Jesus Christ. She is due for an operation but she does not have to take it, Lord; You can perform the surgery even before the doctor's knife can touch her. We ask that Your grace will come to her. Oh God, if You can do that for her today, Father, we will be so grateful.

And if You will have her to go by the way of the doctor's knife and that is Your will, then give her the faith to trust and believe You. He can only cut out that which is malignant but it will take You to heal her anyhow. We ask, dear God, that faith will rise up to such a place in their hearts, for the miracle, Lord. Oh, may You grant it, Father. We ask this mercy on behalf of our precious sister. Be merciful to her, Lord.

When we are going down in age like this and the body begins to get fragile and frail, God, these things are so hard to bear and discomfoting many times, and that's why, Lord, we look to You, God, Who is rich in mercy, because You are the High Priest Who can be touched with the feeling of our infirmities. And may You give her that touch today and she will be ever grateful to You, Father. In Jesus' Name we ask it, amen.

Praise His wonderful Name. Sorry to keep you still standing there but we are praying, we are believing for these needy ones amongst us. You know God is faithful, He is mindful and that's the blessed assurance we have in our hearts. Amen. So, let's just have a word of prayer one more time, and commit the rest of the service into

His hands and then we should be progressing on, in the service, by the grace of God. Amen.

Gracious Father, with bowed hearts, in Your great August Presence, we're thankful, oh God, for the privilege to be in Your house today. It's a joy for us. How You had blessed us last week; how, God, we've come at the beginning of this week to commit our lives into Your hands again, to seek Your favor and Your blessing because we desire to walk in Your will, looking unto You for direction and leadership, praying that the quickening of the Holy Spirit will take the Word and reveal It, oh God, and build up faith in our hearts.

Give us the discernment we need, oh God. Inspire and anoint our faith, Lord, that we can walk in victory, living an overcoming life that can be a real example, that can be an influence, oh God, unto others, that the Church of the Living God might keep marching forward in faith.

We stand here, Lord; we also bring Your precious children out in the islands that are united with us in heart and purpose: in Tobago where our brothers are today for service, out in Grenada, St. Vincent, Dominica, St. Kitts; St. Lucia. Lord Jesus, be gracious, Father. May Your great Presence... Just as we stand needy here, they stand needy there, and we look to You, Lord, the One Who promised to supply all our needs, and Lord Jesus, as we stand we say, Lord, remember us, oh God.

Look down upon us and see the needy places among us, oh God, and may You bring our hearts and minds into such a place where, Lord God, all unbelief, all fears, all doubts will be completely removed, and faith could abound to the uttermost, to draw from You, the Inexhaustible Fountain, that which You have already made secure for us in Christ Jesus and is willing to supply to us as we have faith to ask, and believe we received what we asked for, and You promised we shall have it. Let it be done, Father, in the Name of Jesus Christ.

Now lead and direct this remaining part of the service according to Your Divine and perfect will, in Jesus' Name we pray, amen.

I would like to invite your attention quickly to St. Luke Chapter 17. Amen? Luke Chapter 17, reading from verse 26:

26 And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be...

As it was, so shall it be!

... in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

Life went on as usual; all these things people do every day.

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

Notice that: the day Noah entered into the ark; the day Lot went out of Sodom. But Noah going into the ark and Lot going out of Sodom, was not just by human leadership and human understanding; that was the Divine working of God, Who had prepared the people and they knew that one day they would have to—that would take place. They saw the judgment heaping up around them. So, notice that.

So, He said:

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

Jesus, teaching here, was contrasting these things: the days of Noah – one world destroyed by water; the days of Sodom – one world destroyed by fire there. And then He is likening that to this Hour, when the Son of Man is revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lot's wife. [Remember Lot's wife.]

And out of all this, from Genesis 6, teaching on the days of Noah, to Genesis 19 when Sodom went out, Jesus picked up that woman and said, "Remember Lot's wife." One woman there: "Remember Lot's wife."

Luke Chapter 21. I'm just taking another little part there in Luke. Verse 25:

25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

And that is like that tsunami that they had there recently [Bro. Vin refers to the 2004 Indian Ocean earthquake and tsunami – Ed.], close to three hundred thousand people they said, three hundred thousand all now, that were killed there.

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

He was still speaking about this great Day when the Son of Man was to be revealed from heaven in a Cloud, with His mighty Angels in flaming fire: "When the Son of Man comes in a Cloud; the Day when the Son of Man is revealed," like the days of Noah and the days of Sodom, when they began to see the judgments coming on the earth and the whole earth was in perplexity and perilous times. And He said, "When you see the Son of Man coming, (in that time of the revealing of the Son of Man,) look up and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh." Your redemption is tied to the revealing of the Son of Man.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

And if the Bible is really a true Book, and It is really the Word of God, and He said, "Heaven and earth will pass away..." He said:

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

And He put that seal right there after saying:

... This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

Heaven and earth [will] pass away but my words shall not pass away.

In other words, we can't take these Words and these things He was saying about these things lightly.

34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life...

And that's the season we are in right now in the island here: surfeiting and drunkenness and the cares of this life. And the whole country... We call it 'tourism'. It brings in revenue; foreign currency. And we get the tourists in and we give them the time of their lives. And we put out our best 'winers' [one who does this type of dance -Ed.] and our best alcohol that we distil right here. And you know, we put out the best show we can have and you know, put everything there in all the boroughs and the cities, and put out the best shows and let them see what we are good at; producing and exporting in this island here. Amen.

And so, He said:

34 [But] take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day...

That Day when you see the Son of Man coming!
... come upon you unawares.

Unawares! He is going to come unawares. He is going to come like a thief in the night. He will come suddenly. 'Unawares' means, 'sudden', 'unforeseen', 'unexpected'. That day will come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

I think we are on the earth. I think we are part of, 'all them who dwell on the face of the whole earth'.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

So, it's a snare of a global magnitude. It's a snare that's taking in the whole world, the whole 'cosmos'. The whole 'cosmos' will be caught in the snare.

36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape...

Watching and praying in this Hour is a must.

... that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things...

That's the Rapture. That's the only way of escape.

... that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

May the Lord bless the reading of His Word! You may have your seats.

Once again, we want to welcome you all in the house of the Lord, and try to settle in here a little bit and try to teach a little lesson here this morning that I have been taking on Sundays on, "THE REALIZATION OF THE INSANE AGE," and showing you that we have come and we are living in an Age when the whole world is going to come to such a deteriorated state and the people will be deformed; in such a hideous condition.

It's all through the Bible. And that's why God promises that, like it was like in the days of Noah and the days of Sodom, it shall be destroyed.

And for a Bible believer, if we believe the Bible, we have to believe these things. If we don't believe the Bible, then it's just a historical Book; it means nothing. But when we examine the very Bible Itself, we find out that even the very Bible that we have, that It foretells. It's not like any other book; It foretells thousands of years before things happen. It's written by forty different writers, over a space of about sixteen hundred years. And no two writers, comparing their writings with each other, and yet you cannot find one contradiction inside of It. And yet It expresses one revelation. From Genesis 1 to Revelation 22, make one Book. And that one Book has one Theme, and that one Theme is Jesus Christ. And He is being revealed from Genesis 1 to Revelation 22. Amen.

So, I'm still speaking on THE REALIZATION OF THE INSANE AGE. And I was speaking last week, which I am trying to hold on to that subject a little bit, "The Increasing Desensitization Of This Laodicean Age." The increasing desensitization! People are being desensitized to judgment. People are being desensitized to the Age they are living in. People are being desensitized to what their bodies were given to them for. People are being desensitized to what their moral values and their moral standards should be.

You are seeing people taking off more and more of their clothes daily. You are seeing sex operations: men wanting to become women, and women wanting to become men, increasing. Homosexual marriages are increasing. It's becoming legislation in all the big cities now. Then rights are being given to them because it is recognized like a true marriage. They could raise children. So they could apply for an adoption since a man and a man cannot go and make a child. So if they apply for one, they give it to them. And being two homosexuals, they raise a child and it is normal because it is not like—it's not something out in the alley, in the back of the alley anymore; it is something that is polished and refined, and put out in public, under the term of 'sexual preferences'.

And all of these things have been... Just like I was telling you recently about the 'whe-whe'. [Illegal gambling, now made legal -Ed.] Long ago you would go into a cane-field and a 'whe-whe' banker was going to 'buss a mark'. [When the winning number is revealed -Ed.] Brother, you better be careful because the police were going to pick you up right away. It was an illegal activity.

They took it out of the cane-field, they put it on a nice ticket from a computer, they advertise it on TV; they advertise it in a way that it's appealing, it's nice, it's exciting; it's thrilling. And it's connected to dreams, and dreams are in the subconscious. You can't dream any dream. So, it's moving you now, into the realm of occult science. Do you get what I'm saying? That's an occult science, with all these numbers and the dreams and the interpretation.

And then they put it out there. It's out in the malls and you get nice representatives, who would sit down there and the people would line-up, and they'll queue up and they'll go to play their 'mark'. And they'll move around the office and they'll pick up their different things, and they'll discuss their dreams, and everything is nice and it's on TV, and then it is put in the newspaper. And they've legalized it and they glorify it. And so, the people gradually... Where it was a crime, they decriminalized the thing.

Like in Barbados, they are trying to decriminalize homosexuality and prostitution, so it becomes normal. So a young girl now, when that becomes normal, she can go and apply for a job as a 'call girl'. She is attractive; she is not made to feel it's prostitution. She goes into an office, a senior woman sits down there, watches her, makes her walk and different things. She is going to carry out expatriates when they come into the country, and tourists, (do you understand what I am saying?) if they want to go out to a hotel for dinner one night.

And if they are some big technician and they've come to see about something here, they are going to spend two weeks in the country, they don't want to be locked-up in a hotel room. When their work is done on the job, they are looking to see the country and move around a little bit. So they call it an 'escort service'. So somebody nice will be at their side. They are going to come in a car and pick them up, take them out, maybe they'll go to the Hilton or go to Kapok [Hotels in Trinidad -Ed.] for a little dinner, sporting 'something' at their side. Do you understand what I am saying?

And then they grade them: "How much can you spend? This is first class. This is economy. This is in the baggage section." Do you understand what I am saying? Because it's a business. But it's all refined and cultured. And this is what the world is becoming.

Look how they glorify the cigarettes now. Now, the amount of people that have killed and are killing, now they are trying to, well: "Clean the air in the office," because they knew all along that when somebody is smoking and you are inhaling their smoke because you are in the same room with them, it's giving you the sickness the same way like them. So, they took it out of the planes, they took it out of the offices, they took it out here, they took it out of the airports; they took it out of here.

They have even made restaurants 'no smoking' areas and 'smoking' areas, because they are still trying to hold on to a little business. When you have clientele coming to spend a lot of money on whiskey and you know, food and different things, if you put them away, your business will drop down in half. But it is sickness and disease and destroying people. So for conscience's sake and to put the responsibility on you, they say, "The Surgeon General says that this will give cancer.” So, when you buy it, the blame is not on them. Do you get what I am saying?

But the thing is, while you are watching your news or something, that advertisement is coming through your eye gate and is getting past your human defenses, putting that thing in your subconscious. Because they are manipulating the human being with these subliminal messages. And then it starts to influence your buying; it’s shaping your taste.

Because it’s put out there as somebody having fun, as exciting; get some nice woman with slim fingers, you know, and they have this box here, and they have the box all so nice, like you know, it’s something so precious inside the box. And men sat down on a computer and designed that logo and designed that box to make it look really good in the showcase. And then they put the ad [advertisement –Ed.] there. But it’s all to do what? To manipulate the person to spend money on that product. That’s the whole thing behind it – to make money at the expense of destroying the health of human beings. But that’s the world. That’s the world today. That’s this kind of world we live in.

And now, after they’ve killed so many millions, now they say, “Okay, well, what we are going to do now is, we are going to ban this.” Well, if Hitler killed six million with gas, they inhaled that smoke, (do you understand what I am saying?) this killed more than six million and this also was planned, and this also is having the knowledge of the damage, but this is legal. This is the cosmos. This is the world.

That’s why when we read the Scripture, you know, you read, “As it was in the days of Noah,” you read, “As it was in the days of Sodom,” you read, “The world and the things that are in the world,” and you are hearing words, but you have no real concept to see how it ensnares, and traps, and influences, and deforms, and destroys, because it’s a world that is built by architects and engineers. It's a kingdom. It's an Eden. It didn't just exist; it evolved – from the agricultural revolution, to the industrial revolution, to the information revolution. The world keeps coming higher and higher all the time, but there is more and more death all the time.

I mean, now we have the best medicine, best doctors, more knowledge, more ways of doing research in science; they have the microscope, they have this, they have all kinds of different tests; they know about the Genome Project; they can sequence the human DNA, they have all these things, so great, that men glorify themselves with their knowledge; they have computers and everything, best laboratories, yet we have more sickness and more diseases, killing more. So, what is the boast about science? What is the boast about knowledge? It brings more death.

But the 'Tree' of knowledge was the 'Tree' of death to begin with. Man was put before two trees in the Garden: one was the 'Tree' of the knowledge of good and evil, one was the Tree of Life, and man walked away from the Tree of Life and went to the 'Tree' of the knowledge of good and evil, and he ate from there for six thousand years.

And now he is in a world, a knowledge-based civilization, and the god of this evil Age, that 'Tree', is in the midst of this garden and he is the source by which man lives and he is considered 'successful'. "Oh, he is educated. Oh, that's a refined and cultured man. He only smokes 'Benson & Hedges'" or "Havana' cigars. He only drives, you know, a Mercedes Benz or he only has dinner out in the best hotels" or something. He is cultured. He is refined. He is 'successful'. Why? This is the Age of information. This is this kind of civilization. Do you get what I am saying?

That's why when God says, "The world will pass away," man can't understand. They think it is some kind of wild, fanatical judgment, some angry God, you know, Who has a problem and Who can't tolerate people, and you know, it's some kind of religion, it's some kind of farce, some kind of judgmental business; some angry God Who just turns over everything. And religious people now, look like real critics or deceived people, just swayed into some zeal after some religion worked them up or something.

But when you really look at the Word and judge the Word, and you take man's wisdom and you examine man's wisdom in the Light of God, man's wisdom is foolishness. "The wisdom of man is foolishness," the Bible says, "to the wisdom of God." Man, by his own wisdom, has destroyed himself.

When God says the condition of man and shows man his condition, people many times, you find they don't want to accept that. You know, "I'm not bigoted. I'm not prejudiced. I don't discriminate." Brother, and if some little situation comes up that goes against them to respect somebody else's opinion, to respect somebody else's value, they will destroy that and then go and uphold something far worse than that. Do you get what I'm saying?

And when you look at history and you look down through the Ages, and you see how the world has come from one stage to the next... As we were saying recently, I remember, you know, the days, brother, if a woman wore pants, that was like an abomination! If a girl went out and maybe a little part of her petticoat or something or the slip was showing below the dress, when she saw that, brother, she would blush. She would go in quickly somewhere and fix it; also, your mom and your grandmom.

Brother, today they are wearing the pants quite down here; they have a tattoo there that they want you to see. And half of the time, the symbol of the tattoo is some occult symbol, some witchcraft symbol, but they think it is fashion. Then they pierce their body, and they put something on their navel there. And in the back here, where it is low too, they put a tattoo down in the back there to draw attention to certain parts of their anatomy.

Then they put something in their eyelids [eyebrows -Ed.] up here, and then they put something inside their tongue, and they pierce all over their body, and they put the tattoo all over their body and they print up their body, and then that becomes now, as something so admirable and like an achievement, and 'in the style'. And when they are like that...

And there are people designing the garments to go with that, and then they are the people who can pay for the advertisement. So, they are controlling the prime time, so that is what you are seeing. Who has the money, controls the prime time; put their advertisement out, you see their product! Their product is what is exhibited. They could pay for the big billboard; put it out there.

So, some other person, trying to present some proper, modest clothing, brother, they cannot even afford to... Who's buying that? Do you get what I am saying? And after a while, it is people: they are rich, they are powerful, manipulating the garment industry, controlling it and dressing people in what they determine the fashion is going to be for this summer.

The same way, the newspapers determine what is news. Do you understand what I mean? So, they are telling you what is news. Sometimes, there is something of real importance, it is not put there. Some man, a doctor, discovered something, some great achievement to help the human race or something is put there, it gets some little place in the back. Some naked woman is big up there, some product or the other, somebody shoots somebody in Laventille [village in Trinidad -Ed.], that fills up the newspaper.

And so, the people's minds in this kind of world, and with the amount of people competing for their minds, when you have normal everyday products... You have milk, or some type of clothing or something, you have fifty or sixty different brands of that clothing trying to compete for your mind; you have about ten different kinds of milk in the grocery competing for your mind. Everything you have to buy... If you want to buy some electronic something, brother, you have about two hundred of that competing for your mind. And everybody's bombarding you: their product is this, their product is that, this one is advertised, this one looks a certain way, and the human mind has to make all those decisions, and it is a constant bombardment.

And who is more successful in manipulating and controlling the people, is who controls the market. And so, you have men studying what they call 'market strategy', because it is corporate warfare and the corporate warfare is for the consumer. Because that is 'market share', they call it. So, if they control the market, then their product becomes predominant. And it's fierce warfare.

Many times, they will bring the goods cheaply. Those big conglomerates, they will put down a big, massive complex and put the goods cheap for a season; everybody is going and buying there. The poor man who was trying to build up his business for twenty-five years, they will throw him out of the place 'clean' [completely -Ed.], and then they will raise the thing [the price - Ed.] afterwards. Now they'll control the whole market. And then they call it 'success'.

So greed, and lust, and war, and competition and these things, and strife, is the spirit that drives these things and shapes the people, and it becomes predominant and creates the atmosphere that the people live in, in this kind of world. So, everybody is aggressive.

And that is why after a while when you get that kind of a way, you want to see pictures with violence; you want to see things a certain way. Because you will only bring out a diet when you have people who want that kind of food. And if you don't want that kind of food, then they will cultivate in you the taste for it.

It's a control. And that's why we are talking about this cage. People are being hunted, people are being snared, people are being captured, people are being caged, and yet they think they are free. The mind is already under the control of a certain influence. Because the battleground is in the mind. Decisions are made in the mind, and every man is a free moral agent that was put there in the Garden in the very beginning, to accept or reject.

That's why, friends, when you look and you see, you see how relevant Genesis is. What looked like some old ancient story we don't know: a snake in the Garden and some kind of thing they have out there, it was the god of wisdom and knowledge, the god of perverted knowledge, the subtlety of the Serpent, the enchantment, his beauty, his wisdom, his guile to take the simple, to manipulate them, to control them, to get through their eyes and make them see it is pleasant to the eyes; to create the lust and the desire for it. They will walk away from the Word to get it. It is not an old story, it's God's Word; it's God's revelation in the Bible. That's why He said, "Buy of Me, Eyesalve."

And I've been seeing, since I've started to preach this, I can't even get past reading a Scripture because I'm trying to show you—one of the main things I'm trying to show you behind this is, what the Bible calls 'the world'. That was a revelation. This world has gone through changes and forms and civilizations and kingdoms and different things. And when it's finished, it becomes hell on the earth, and Lucifer becomes the god of the world and the whole human race bows down to worship this god. That is what it becomes.

And that's why it's judged, and the atomic bomb was invented that the righteous will walk out on the ashes of the wicked, the Bible says. God will burn the earth with fire. Amen. The same way it was destroyed by water in the days of Noah; went through their scientific inventions. The thoughts of the hearts of men were evil continually, the Bible says. And brother, they couldn't believe a message that was unscientific, because the science and the wisdom of man poisoned the minds of the people to disbelieve that God could bring rain from the sky, because the Bible said, "There was no rain in those days." But God told Noah, "Rain is coming."

Now watch something! But their own wisdom and rebellion to the Word of God was what was going to bring the rain. And their wisdom that was saying, "There is none there," was going to be proven as foolishness before God. Because they now, with their wisdom, with their atomic bomb and these things...

Remember, they built the pyramids and those things before the flood. Up till now, man is trying to figure out how they could have built those things. They don't know the mathematical science here today. It is only within the last, maybe, eighty or ninety years, man began to understand the knowledge and the science of the pyramid, a little bit.

But like civilization always, and history, they want to put down that they are so great, so when another Age comes, they would want to appear to be so wise, so they don't put it down as it really is. And so, they can't humble themselves that those people were wiser than them, who built the pyramid, because they can't build that pyramid today, with all the science they have.

They used to have those mummies and kept a human body, brother, so preserved, for three thousand years. They don't know that science yet; it's lost. The kind of clothing and these things they had, the dyes that they had, when they opened up all those Egyptian tombs and things, and they got things, brother, the color was still as bright as ever, for all those thousands of years. See?

When they found that waterworks down in Mexico that time doing excavations, and they saw some of the apparatus with the waterworks, it was far advanced than what they have in this civilization. Out in Peru, in some of those places, they found mathematical equations written in those caves and they, far beyond, and drawings of extraterrestrial things. They think it was man from outer space, but it is man on the earth in a civilization, that in their mind, they thought it was cavemen.

And then somebody comes with a degree and tells you they found a bone; it's one hundred and twenty-eight million years old. He spent all his life from a young boy in kindergarten, all the way to a renowned scientist, and his great achievement and discovery was to come up with some bone, and he says, "This is one hundred and twenty-eight million years old." And he's going to die and go to the grave and go to Hell afterwards, but he's trying to show somebody some bone. He wasted his life! That's right.

That's why friends, we live in an Age here, people have to be true to themselves. This is an Age that, this is a world that... And if God gives me time and helps me to get through quickly, to prove to you, this world came by a lie. This kind of civilization came by the lie. So this whole world, the author of it, is the father of the lie. The whole thing is a lie and a deception. And everybody born by that and is part of this world, is living the lie.

They have a lie in the joy that they are getting. He lies to them and tells them: "You are happy. Drink Johnnie Walker Black Label. [Whiskey -Ed.] You are happy. You are better than the man who is drinking Old Oak. [Rum -Ed.] You are a better man than him." Do you understand? "Smoke Benson & Hedges, don't smoke Anchor and Broadway. [Brands of cigarettes -Ed.] You are a better man than him." That is their values. Those are their standards.

Then they tell a woman, "Take some cosmetic surgery." She is sixty years old, you know, but she is living such a false life, when she looks in that mirror and sees those wrinkles... Because there is no beauty inside, and all she lives for is this outward flesh. And it shows how shallow the wisdom is, she doesn't realize that by growing older, the flesh will decay. So now, she wants to reverse the clock.

So, they have the poor woman out in a gym in a lambada shorts, around the savannah, all kinds of different things. And then somebody comes and is telling her, well, they have this special thing to kind of relax her, you know, help the skin get back a certain way. And she needs some hormone shots and a little cosmetic surgery, and you know, they try to restructure the woman. Poor thing, at that age, brother, she has no peace on the inside of her heart.

If you watch these kinds of Joan Collins and all these kinds of people, Elizabeth Taylor [actresses -Ed.] and they, who have seven, eight husbands and all kinds of different things, all of their life is a waste. And this is what is glamourized and put up there. Look at poor Michael Jackson. Look at the poor boy. [Congregation laughs - Ed.] And then they put them out there, and the thing is, (you laugh at that?) they influence millions and millions of people. They become an idol to an Age. People spend their money: everywhere they are, everything they say, every picture they appear in, everything they have, they will put it up on their wall and everything else. If they only give them a phone call, they will faint. Who! They will feel so special.

Look at Elvis Presley and all these people who died there and are gone. I was telling you recently about Bob Marley's wife, and all these Jamaican people who want to make a whole furor over it: "How can you take part of our heritage and carry it to Ethiopia and bury it?" This time they don't know where the poor man's soul is, you know, which was the real man. Because the man is not this body out here. [Bro. Vin refers to the physical body -Ed.] But they are trying to give wisdom to the world and they are so shallow. Do you understand what I am saying?

But like I keep telling you, did these things just become great, or were there people who made these things great in the eyes of people? And in this kind of society, you have to have these kinds of distractions. You have to mold people from small [young -Ed.] and say, “He is going to be a great person. This is a great football star coming up; get a hold of him right away.”

They say, “He’s still in primary school.”

They say, “Take the parents and everybody and move them over to this country. We will give him a contract for the next so many years. We will take care of all the parents’ expenses.”

They are already seeing that he will fill a stadium, you know. “Who is the next star?” So they have all these teen talent shows: “Who will be a star? Who is the next rising star on the scene?” And all people are competing for that and exhibiting their talent. And when they find them, they know it is time for some new stars because there is a new generation coming there and you wouldn’t catch them with the stars of yesterday; you have to get new ones for this generation.

Who is controlling that kind of market, cultivating and breeding these kinds of products, and looking forward to maintaining that kind of influence, to establish and keep that kind of control over the planet? Are you thinking? Is this the same world you and I live in, and bump into those same people every day, and walk in the streets, and is in the midst of all the influence?

The Bible says, “This present evil Age”; that He came to rescue us. God sent His Son to deliver us from this present evil Age. Not take us out of the world on another planet somewhere, but deliver us from the grip and the influence and the power and the control, that no wrong influence will control us and bring us into idolatry, but we’ll live to serve the Living God, and walk and worship the one true and Living God. It’s a snare world; a snare world. As it was in the days of Noah.

Let’s just read one or two things quickly as we go along this line here: this realization of this insane Age.

I'm trying to bring you to this realization. When you hear these things, let your thinking expand; let your eyes begin to become open. Catch the concept that your eyes can be anointed with Eyesalve, that when you look, you are beholding what you are really looking at.

When Eve looked at the Serpent, she didn't see death to herself and the human race, you know; she saw a fountain of wisdom. When she went to Adam, she said, "Adam, boy, we sit down here like a bunch of 'dodos' [a person with old-fashioned, conservative, or outmoded ideas -Ed.], but something's happened so great today. If you only know the experiences I got and the light I have. And this great thing we are looking for, I know how to get it now. I know how we will bring it to pass." She thought she was excited. She thought she had something. Poor, little, deluded, deceived thing!

From that time every child born by sex, died, until a God had to become flesh and be born without sex to save all people who were born by sex. Because every man born by sex is born dead, in sins and trespasses, came into the world speaking lies. Not every man who ate an apple, came into the world speaking lies, you know; every man born by sex came into the world speaking lies. "Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble" [Job 14:1 -Ed.]; not man ate an apple and is of few days, and full of trouble. Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. People think that it's man who ate an apple, is of few days and full of trouble.

Do you hear how the Spirit is saying that? Oh, it's such a light. I could stop there and close my Bible and go and sit down in the room and think, think, think on that now. It says so much without saying it, but so much, just to show you what Truth is. My!

1st John Chapter 2, verses 15 to 17. I want to put these Scriptures here because I'm trying to sensitize you to what the world is, and sensitize you to why God has come down in this Day, to call a people out. And to sensitize you that we are in the Hour, when the wrath of God will be poured out on this generation, as promised in the Bible.

Because the world has desensitized the people to this, so the churches and all are getting the spirit of judgment and don't know it. Brother, they have their 'dub' and their 'blocko' and they call it 'contemporary worship'. And all of that came into the church and influenced the people, and then when you look now, you can't tell the difference between a church person and somebody in the world. Do you get what I'm saying?

Why? Because the Gospel became a money-making thing. Man has used business principles in the Gospel to commercialize It and to pull the money from the people. And con artists sit down there and figure, "All I have to do is put on a suit and a tie, and rehearse one or two Scriptures, and do what I do on the corner. What I do on the corner is too slow. Well, let me get in the mainstream of religion and get there."

And instead of trying to hustle on the corner: "Give me two dollars, I want something to eat here," he found a more polished and a refined way to get that meal ticket. "God loves a cheerful giver," and "God is going to bless you," and "Sow your seed of faith right now." See! And they learn all those things. And then the church world has the people so blind, well, they run gullibly after all these things and they end up in that mess.

So, I want you to watch some of these Scriptures here. 1st John 2:15-17:

What are 'the things that are in the world' and how did those 'things that are in the world' come into existence? And the things, especially, that are in the world, that have the world hypnotized and under a spell, and that they spend their money for and that they work hard and labor to put their money into that, to find joy, to find pleasure, to find education; to find something.

When he said, “Things that are in the world,” he doesn’t mean just... No! He’s talking about the world and the world that has its grip.

So, when you see a rock concert sometimes, and you see you have five hundred thousand people sitting down there, and then you go to have a Gospel meeting and you can’t get fifty, you realize, that has a power in the world. When you see a man make a movie and put it out there with some bunch of junk and some fictitious thing, and in two weeks, they tell you the ‘Box Office’, they have already crossed one hundred and fifty million dollars. Do you get what I am saying? He said, “I see things in the world.”

When you start to hear there are two hundred and eighty million pornography sites on the Internet, you realize how many wicked people there are, that’s putting out those things there.

Like I was reading in the Express [Local newspaper -Ed.] yesterday, they have some woman, some old prostitute woman there, that they had her and they said... Well, that was in the newspaper. The newspaper said she is an ex-prostitute; she has gotten kind of old now. She was kind of famous with all her porn movies and things that she used to make, and now all her groans and her moans that she used to tantalize people with in that industry, she is going to put it on a phone. And they got a mobile phone company to give her a contract, so you could download her moans and her groans. And people started to say—a fellow said, “If she calls my name... I want my name.” So, he wants to put that on his phone, so when somebody calls him and he doesn’t answer the phone, that voice comes on, you know.

Can you imagine people have taste in the world for that? They are cultured to that. That’s a business. And people go to a mobile phone company... Why? There is something called the ‘sex industry’. Sex is an industry. That’s a billion-dollar industry, as I read for you last week. They say there are more slaves right now on earth, than the four hundred years of slavery, when they brought the people from Africa to work on plantations. There are more slaves today. It's on a Human Rights website. In the United States alone every year, it's close to almost a million slaves trafficked in the United States alone.

Like I was telling you, Indonesia, Thailand, those places have sex tourism industries. There is a thing called 'sex tourism'. Do you think all those people who are coming for Carnival, when they are advertising Carnival, and people are seeing those women coming down Frederick Street or on the Savannah, do you think they are nuns with prayer books?

When they are advertising some of these shows on Dimanche Gras and the Carnival fetes and different things, and somebody on a website says, "I am hearing about this Trinidad Carnival, you know, let me check it out." And they see that here, they say, "Okay, I am going down there. I am going to spend a few days down there. I can spend my vacation down there." Do you understand what I am saying? When they come, do you think they are coming to say, "Mama, this is mas; this is mas for class"? Do you think that is what they are coming to say? Oh brother, I tell you.

You see, but it goes on all around us. But the Gospel is supposed to wake us up to recognize the Day that we are living in, to have discernment of spirits to see what is put out there and has gripped a nation and a region, and held people in darkness, and trapped them in there. That's why it takes the Word from the mouth of God to break that cage and pull those people out.

Because the whole mainstream so-called 'gospel' world, brother, they make their small cages too. And this is where we need to be sensitized. Do you know why you miss it? Because you are so desensitized. You are so desensitized. The news has you desensitized. The way it's presented has you desensitized. The way it's designed to even contact and stir up the lust in this fallen man, this outward man, has you desensitized. And the way it puts pressure, and makes prayer hard, and seeking God hard, and waiting before God, that seems so long in their minds.

And this is an Age of fast food. Everybody wants everything fast. Nobody has time to stand up for anything now, so nobody isn't going to any store. Man is shopping on the Internet: "Bring the thing at my door." People are going... They have 'drive thru'. Nobody is going to stand up in line there; they go through the 'drive thru'. Everybody wants it quick. They have cultured the world like that.

And people who don't watch themselves, and people who don't have a strong conviction and know what they want to be, and what they don't want to be... And people who have principles and their principles are not just some little slogan that they kind of say, but people who are bound by their principles and they will not go away from their principles, they know, "I will not let that influence me. I'm not that kind of person and nobody is going to bring me in that kind of vice, and nobody is going to control my life that kind of way. Brother, no sadistic person inside of there, brother, some vulture, some predator, wants to come with some kind of enticement, I refuse to let him control my life. I refuse to support those kinds of things."

If a person doesn't have that kind of conviction, do you know what is going to happen? You will get talked [persuaded -Ed.] into anything and talked out of anything. You are just like a little, dry leaf on a pond: the breeze blows you this way, blows you that way, blows you that way, and then you kind of feel a form of security when you are in the multitude, and a lot of people are thinking like you.

Watch and see if those people achieved anything in history. Watch and see if those people are remembered at all. Watch and see if those people have amounted to anything in life. Do you want to be a loser like them? No way, man! You want to know: “I know in Whom I believe in and I’m persuaded that He is able to keep that which He committed, even unto that day.” That’s right! “I am not ashamed of the Gospel; this is the Power of God unto salvation.”

But then they kind of make you look like you are ‘churchy’, and you are kind of weak and you can’t handle the world, and the world is too rough for you. So, you try to find some green pasture as a little, old sheep. Yes, I am a little, old sheep. See? Like they say, “Little church boy and church girl, you are not for out here. You can’t handle it here.” Yeah! You surely can’t handle there, because it takes a pig to handle that. It takes a vulture to handle that. It takes a liar and a deceiver and some demon to handle that. And I surely can’t handle that.

I can handle holiness. Can you handle that? I can handle true Love. Can you handle that? I can handle righteousness. Can you handle that? You have things they can’t handle too. They can handle their mud, but you have things they can’t handle. Yes, sir! [Congregation rejoices -Ed.]

Christians are not softie people, you know. Those are hybrid Christians. Because a Christian, you have the Holy Ghost, and the Holy Ghost is all power. That is God. There isn’t anything strong like Him. That’s right. And when He comes in a man, he says, “I can do all things through Christ that strengtheneth me. And greater is He that is in me, than he that is in the world.” How is the Devil going to handle that? Uh, uh! [Meaning, “No, no.” -Ed.] You’re making joke! The Word is mighty to the pulling down of strongholds!

It is not, “We are in church and...” No! You want to walk with God there. How many want that, this morning? [Congregation says, “Amen.” -Ed.] Praise God. Amen. Yes, sir! Let’s look at this a little more.

The 'things' that Satan puts up there to beautify it, make popular, make influential, culture people into and have them trapped in and they are giving their whole life for and it's worthless, is what he is talking about. And I'll show you how those things come about just now.

... If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

That 'world' there means 'cosmos': 'arrangement', 'order'; 'harmony'. It's a civilization. It's a kingdom. It's built a certain way. When you come down this avenue, oh, you feel an ecstasy. When you go down this avenue over here, oh, you feel excitement. When you go down this avenue over here, (whoo!) you have the greatest of pleasures. It is designed, the world is designed, to keep you there all the time.

Don't think the world is just the geographical part of it: Trinidad, and apples and grapes and, you know, mango and, you know, beaches. The world is more than that, friends. We are talking about the world, the cosmos, that is designed, where he said, "I will be like God," this one who built an Eden. And his Eden is really a big prison planet. He is the man, the Bible says, who doesn't open his prison. And his science has evolved so high, he built a maximum-security prison. Everybody in this prison is going to have the mark of the Beast. Do you get what I'm saying? And all that is in that cage is because, why? They refused the Gospel, so they can't come out. No matter how much they hear it, they can't come out.

How could they refuse freedom and go back to the origin? He desensitized them. He desensitized them. He got into their system. He made their slavery so nice, that they don't want to leave their master to go out. He's destroyed that desire for what they were in the beginning and the place that they were in the beginning, where they fell from, when they came into that slavery.

Man was in a kingdom, friends, far beyond this. But look how Satan has man in this world, that brother, this is the world they want to be big in, this is the world that they wish could go on, and go on, and go on, and go on, because they don't want to go back to that world.

And the Gospel now, has become a thing, that there is so much misrepresentation, that people don't even know what Truth is anymore; that he put so many perverted things out there, people have no confidence in what is the Truth anymore; they've just given up. So people started to turn to all kinds of Eastern religions, started to turn to the occult; started to turn to all kinds of different things.

Why? Because of how he destroyed the church. Because he came in there and told them, "Organization is the church." And he took away the Word from them and gave them a man-made denomination, and told them that is the church, and he killed out all the true Christians in the Dark Ages. Foxe's Book of Martyrs tells you, sixty-eight million died under Roman Catholic persecution.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life...

So then it means to say, the man who built this world, he knows the flesh. He understands the flesh and the lust of the flesh. So he built this world so that the lust in man's flesh, he has that so under his influence and he has put out things to satisfy the lust of that flesh.

The lust of the eyes! Brother, right now they have about five hundred cable channels, then they have the Internet. Brother, do you know how many things he gave them to see? They could see day and night. He has their minds so confused, until they can't tell what is real and what is unreal anymore. They can't remember what it is that they saw in a movie and what they experienced in real life. Do you get what I'm saying?

Because he filled them up with so many fictitious man-made things, that they have never learnt to grow and develop, and be tutored by God in the experiences God ordained in their lives to bring reality to them. Satan got their minds and flooded them with all kinds of man-made things, so when they talk, they are talking about all kinds of fictitious, imaginary things that Hollywood produced, and there is no real experience inside of them.

What do you expect their spirits to be? A product of what they eat; what they feed upon. And then that now, gave them a repellent to repel God, when the Word of God was going to give them a repellent to repel that thing. Are you getting that? This is manipulation of the highest order, you know.

You think... There are those crackpots or some real sophisticated, well-learned advanced psychiatrists out there, who can read a man's mind, analyze the man's mind, you know, help take away the man's stress, teach him positive thinking, put him in a certain plane where he could handle and manage stress, and you get a book on stress management in this neurotic Age, and how to keep up with your three jobs and don't be frustrated, and how to... Brother, and they write all kinds of theories and then they could sit down and doctor you. These are the mind doctors. And tranquilizer for this, 'thing' for that, they give you certain things to see, you know, when you lie down on your bed, they give you certain things to put—earphones on your head, trying to manage all your stress and everything else.

When you watch people in this world, and in God's world, Adam didn't need that; he had peace. There was nothing to bring stress in God's kingdom, where it was. Everything was joy and peace. There was no death. There was no sickness. But they changed the world and made this kind of world.

I don't know how many of you all have ever been in an insane asylum, or in Ward 1 [local hospital ward for insane patients -Ed.] in the hospital, and stand up there and see the condition of people, and then see some of the remedies to get them back on track, that are being applied. You must go sometimes; it will do you good. Go and see. Because you see, that is part of the world you are not seeing. And then you will realize that there is a miniature form of the whole world. Because this world is designed to bring you into that condition, friends. The human body was not made for this.

The human body was not made to tell a lie. That is why they could put a lie detector on you and prove that you are lying. That was why in the Old Testament, in Numbers 5, when the woman committed adultery and hid it from her husband, if she had committed adultery and lied to the husband, God told Moses, take a certain thing and mix it; a certain formula, give her to drink. When she drinks it, nothing will happen if she is telling the truth. If she was lying, it would cause a rotting in the exact place the crime was committed.

When God was making the person... The Bible says, what? "You are fearfully and wonderfully made." The reason that machine picks up the lie, that polygraph machine, is because a lie throws your whole body out of disorder. [Bro. Vin's microphone falls -Ed.] I am talking the Truth anyhow. He doesn't like the Truth; he is the father of the lie.

Now watch! So when you watch... When that woman told a lie... Do you know that they found out that laughter is one of the best medicines? They say when you are under all that stress and you could laugh, do you know what it does? Certain glands in the head secrete certain chemicals and remove that. When you tell a lie, that releases certain things. It is a chemistry of the body. Why does a person, who is sorrowful, cry? Why do tears come? When a person gets excited erotically and these things, then those body fluids come too. When a person sees food and they get excited, then their taste buds start to spring water. That is the chemistry of the body. Man is made up that way.

And when a person tells a lie, that causes certain fluids, certain chemicals to secrete there and would have mixed with that thing and brought a poison and that poison is used to rot the thigh. Because God knew what He made in nature, and God knew what He made in the human body, and He knew man is part of the earth, and God has all that mystery, and God revealed it to His prophet, Moses, and said, "Test them here," to show that God had a lie-detector long before man invented this thing by science.

The world, friends, this world. May God help us, that our eyes can be anointed to see, what appears to look so nice, that attracts and holds people spellbound... Because remember, in that civilization that is coming, it's not this kind of world. Jesus. I'm down... Quickly!

[1st John 5:18 -Ed.]

We know that whosoever is born of God...

Okay, verse 17 [Chapter 2 -Ed.]:

<sup>17</sup> And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

"The world passeth away, and the lust thereof." Now catch that, okay! The days of Noah passed away, you know. And the days of Sodom passed away, you know. And Lot's wife saw that world passing away, and she could not handle that world was going to pass away, and she passed away with it. She was conformed to that world. She was conformed to that world. She was caged in that world. And when those angels came to take them out of the cage, she was so desensitized to what was going on. She knew these were angels coming. She knew this was an hour of judgment. The Bible says the angels had to hold Lot's hand, hold her hand, hold the children's hands and drag them out.

And just the evening before, Abraham was on his knees crying, begging God. Why? Because he was sensitized to the appearing of the righteous Judge. He was sensitized that judgment was coming upon the world. He saw the last sign; he knew the promise was at hand. He sat in the tent door waiting; he was so sensitized of the time and the season. He was looking, and when he saw the appearing of the angels, he rose to his feet. He knew, "It's time for the promise. It's time for the change."

When you see the Son of Man coming, the Angels appearing, look up, your Redemption draweth nigh, because as it was in the days of Sodom, so shall it be. Look at the passing away of that world. But that world had them desensitized to the coming of the Lord.

The angels met Abraham in the tent door waiting for the promise. The cattle were starving, brother, herdsmen were fussing, Sarah was complaining, but he was sitting there because God said, "This time next year." He checked the time; he was in the season. He was in the season. He believed the promise. He had a new name – God called him 'Abraham'. He nursed from El Shaddai. That gave him strength and had him locked in, looking for the promise.

The other angels came and found Lot in the gate handling Sodom's matters; occupied with the business of Sodom. And when he saw them, he said, "My lords, how about if you come into my house and stay?" They said, "Not at all. We are going to stay in the street all night." He begged, he begged, he begged, he pressed, then the angels decided, "Okay, we will stay. We'll go in."

When he went and told his sons-in-law and they, "Come on, it's judgment; this place is going to burn in the morning," they started to laugh. They felt he was making a joke. They saw so much of Jay Leno and David Letterman [American comedians -Ed.], they listened to so much 'Sprangalang' [Dennis Hall -Ed.] and Tommy Joseph, and all of these things out there, they were so desensitized; 'John Agitation' [Ramdeen Ramjattan -Ed.] and they; 'Beulah'

[Shirley King -Ed.]. [Local comedians -Ed.] The whole world was a comic for them. They were clowns. I'm talking about Lot's sons-in-law.

So Lot was talking about judgment. He said, "Angels have come, you know. Angels are in the house here." He said, "I was the First Pull. They are the Second Pull. Elohim is coming down." He said, "He's right behind. By morning He will be here, and this place is going to burn. That volcano there is about to erupt."

"Scientists say, no, it might not erupt for about five hundred years." They say, "It's kind of emitting some gases but it doesn't look like it's ready for any explosion yet."

But the angels said, "It isn't ready for an explosion? When we come here and we speak the Word, that explosion will start. And all that fire and brimstone will be raining out of that volcano and dropping down in this place here, and will turn this place into ashes."

She was desensitized, the sons-in-law were desensitized, Lot was desensitized; the daughters were desensitized. And Abraham was so sensitized to the coming and the hour. But it's where you are living. It's where you are living, and what is around you, influencing you where you are living. Do you get what I'm saying? Lot represented, what? The lukewarm believer; the hawk that got soft. Hmmm! [Bro. Vin claps once - Ed.]

1st John 5. Just turn... I'm not going to hold you. I'm going to be a good boy today. [Bro. Vin chuckles -Ed.] I did that to you enough last week, so I have to pay up my dues today. 1st John 5, verse 18. And:

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

And the word there, if you have a revised version, in the margin there It says literally, ‘the wicked one’. “The whole world lieth in the wicked one.” He is the author of this civilization. He is the designer of this world. He is the designer of the people. He has his own church system. Do you get what I’m saying?

The whole world, the cosmos, lieth in the wicked one. He told Jesus, “I’ll give You all, if You bow down and worship me.” It belongs to him. He built them. His son, Cain, is who started to build. And what his son started to build, he will sit down as God over it and be enthroned, and be worshiped by the subjects of it. Do you get that? [Congregation says, “Amen.” –Ed.] That is good!

Yeah, what his son started to build – the son he opened the door to the human race with and brought forth by the lie. Perverted truth brought forth a perverted birth; a perverted birth brought forth a perverted life; a perverted life could never obey the Word of God. It brought forth a child of disobedience that rejected the Truth and established a false religion. He couldn’t take correction of the Word. Is that right? That’s right! He brought forth the tares.

Do you know that He’s come? Not was come, ‘is’ come.

... and hath given us an understanding...

[...and hath given us an understanding]...

Divine revelation!

... that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

Not little statutes; from idols: movie idols, sports idols, fashion idols; music idols. In this Age the idols are not a little piece of concrete that’s stuck up anywhere.

There is still that kind for the ones who are already bound in tradition and superstition. But in this Age and this generation, he puts them living, walking about all over. They say, "That is my idol," and they put up their big picture and, brother, however that person dresses, whatever that person does, whatever that person wants, they follow that. That is the idol. And they have another name for them; they call them 'role models' too.

Like I was showing my boys and they there the other morning, they had Shurwayne Winchester and Destra Garcia and... [Local entertainers -Ed.] I've forgotten the other fellow's name. And they were down there at Woodbrook Secondary School or one of those schools, talking to the children, you know. They were going and... It's Carnival season, so the teachers, through the Ministry of Education, I guess, organized a nice, little thing for the children to get into the festival, in the atmosphere, you know.

So they got down there and then they were telling them, "Now, be careful..." Destra Garcia was saying, "Be careful. Obey your parents. Keep God in your life." The other one was telling them, "Don't do drugs and sex." And then, you know, in a lot of these places too, they have these little booths and different places, passing out the condoms and so on.

That was on one [newspaper -Ed.] page. And they had that there; it looked nice. It was a nice kind of public relations article; kind of showed some interest in the nation's youths, and gave them a warning for the season, which is a little barrier to keep them, you know, in discipline and order. And then they have their 'stars' that they feel will have some influence on them, who told them that.

But to show you how the newspaper is just a thing... It's a product. Newspaper is a product to sell. And on the next page, they had this same woman who was just saying that there, and she's on a show singing, and she had this little piece of 'thing' up here [Bro. Vin indicates the chest area -Ed.], and it fell open. And a man was sitting down in the back of her, tying it back up because it fell open while she was singing a song. I said, "Look here, look at the hypocrisy and the double standards of these things." What kind of influence could that bring? Could that bring some influence to help somebody?

You see, some people like a signpost. They put it down in concrete by the side of the road: "Five miles to Princes Town." It's telling everybody, to go to Princes Town, it is five miles, but it isn't going one step, you know. But it's telling everybody: "If you want to go Princes Town, it's five miles," and it's not moving at all.

That's the kind of example they have today: everybody is telling somebody what to do and nobody is doing it. The real example is, you live, you walk the talk. You live what you are telling people, otherwise it's pretense, it's hypocrisy; it's downright deception. That's right! That's right.

Romans 12, verses 1 and 2. I'm giving you these, on the world, because the world is the cage. The world, Babylon, has become the cage. The abominations of this system have shaped the world. This is the revived empire. This is the Eden of Satan himself, the god of this evil Age that blinded the minds of the people, the Bible says.

So, I'm showing you the world according to Scripture. And this is just one or two I chose to... I had it at the side here. I said it is convenient that I slip it in and that's what I'm trying to do here. I got off my route a little bit but I want you to see the world: "The whole world lieth in the wicked one; the idols to keep yourself from." Watch how John and they had revelation, okay.

And they said, "The only way that wicked one can't touch you, you have to be born of God." You have to have the Birth - that's the only way. Because that Birth puts you in another Kingdom. That Birth takes you out of the grip, and delivers you and rescues you from this world. Because this world is going to pass away, friends.

Romans 12:

The same Paul again here. John; now Paul.

... brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

<sup>2</sup> And be not conformed to this world...

He said, "Now, don't be conformed to this world."

... but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind...

That can take place now. Why? The revelation of what this world is, and how this world was designed and how this world lieth in the wicked one, and how the wicked one perverted the true seeds of God...

Because I'm going to show you, the real world came by God's Spoken Word, Genesis 1 and 2: "Let there be, let there be, let there be, let there be." And God said, "Let there be light." And God separated the water from the dry land. And God, you know, called for the animals, and then God did this.

And then God made man in His image and likeness. And then God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone." And then God took part of him and made the woman. And then God Himself came down amongst them, and God and man were united and there was harmony. There was no death, nothing at all. Everything was perfect: no sickness, no death, no sorrow, no fear, no lie; not anything.

And then the enemy came in and said, "Yea, hath God said! You shall not surely die." And by the perverting of what God spoke, he began, with that, to change the world. He began with that, and he got the woman and she opened up. And then he opened a door for himself and then she conceived. And then God said, "I'll put enmity between the woman's seed and the Serpent's seed," because now he had a seed inside of there.

Jesus said, "The evil sower sowed the evil seed and the evil seed is the children of the Devil, and that's the tares. But the Good Sower sowed the good Seed and that is the children of the Kingdom; that's the Wheat." Light and darkness: there are two trees. We are at the Harvest Time. We are at the end of the world.

And he said:

In other words, God was giving us a revelation with the opening of the Seals to look beyond this civilization. And He took us back to Genesis, before there was one city. Before there was one city, He showed us what the world was. Then He showed us, Cain went out and he began to change the world by, what? Science. Industry; science! And all the things we have today are what science gave us. Education, a great civilization has come forth out of this.

Look at the cities we have. We hear about New York and Los Angeles, and Rome, and Paris, and each one of these cities have their own character and they have their own attractions. And now he has united all the cities together; he united the world together. What a kingdom he has built, friends. What a kingdom he has built.

Let the musicians come for me, and I'll close off there.

Think of it: when God started in Genesis, it was Divine Love, God and man: perfect Love, perfect peace; Perfect Faith. God, by His Perfect Faith, spoke and brought an Eden into existence. From chaos to an Eden. Nothing could die there. Man lived by the Word of God. God and man were in union and fellowship.

There was Perfect Love between Adam and his wife; in harmony: no adultery, no fear, no mistrust; no superstition. And then adultery came in, a perversion: bestiality; sexual love. From Divine Love with God, to phileo love. From Agapo Love to phileo love. Adam and his wife brought like a brother and sister, yet husband and wife, yet looked at each other and were not ashamed; veiled in a holy veil in a kingdom of innocence and righteousness; no lust.

Then from there you got polygamy – Genesis 4. Now, man was not satisfied with one wife. Then, by the time it reached to Noah, Genesis 9, with Ham, you had incest. And by Genesis 13, Sodom, that Lot separated from Abraham to go into and got burnt in Genesis 19, were Sodomites.

From Divine Love, with God and man in union, here was the same God now, Who came down to man in Sodom, and man was living with one another; the same God Who was in Genesis with Adam and Eve. Adam was Christ. You know that. Then God put Adam to sleep.

I'll give you a little bit of the mystery, so you can see from another side. Then God took the bride out; she was part of the bridegroom. That is the Church, Christ and the Church. That is the Ephesians: Perfect Love, no sin; a sin-free Church. But as the Serpent beguiled Eve, so do these come, corrupting their minds. And the Serpent came in, to Eve. That is Nicolaitanes, the white horse rider, deceiving the church; sowing a seed of discrepancy; the evil sower putting the tares in the field.

Then 'bitterness'! Out of that womb came Cain and Abel: a child of disobedience and a child of obedience – a tare and a wheat. And they began to clash, and Cain killed Abel.

Then 'Pergamos' – 'married'. The church married the world. Because now it's two lineages. The sons of God saw the daughters of men and took unto them wives, and began to get into further hybridization that started with Eve and the Serpent.

Then 'Thyatira': Babylon set up a kingdom on the earth and began to get drunk with all the blood of the prophets; killed everything that didn't agree with her and forced the whole earth under her control – that 'dominant female'. That is exactly what Nimrod did at Babel, when he built Babel, and set himself up as God, the false prophet there, and forced that religion on the world, and began to kill and hunt all those who wouldn't bow to that thing.

Then God called Abraham out, like Luther – ‘Sardis’ – ‘escaped ones’: “Come out of her, My people.” And then after Abraham came out, Genesis 12, not knowing where he was going; like Abraham looking for a City, whose Builder and Maker is God.

Then in Genesis 15, God came and confirmed the covenant by blood – Wesley, the message of Sanctification. Then in Genesis 17, God came as El Shaddai: “Nurse from Me”; the breasted One; as the nursing mother for the baby – the Pentecostal Age. Then in Genesis 18 – the day of Sodom; when the sins of Sodom were heaped up and the cup of Sodom's iniquities were full, and God heard the cry and God came down in an investigation judgment, to judge the world.

And in that day, God came in a man like a prophet; not the corporal body. A Man like a traveler with dust on His clothes, God came walking. Hallelujah! A Man that could open the mystery, a Man Who could turn His back and show a sign by knowing the secret of the heart, a Man Who came to sensitize the Elect that the promise is at hand; a Man Who had come to put them in order for a change.

And then He turned and He went down to Sodom. And when He went down to Sodom, on the earth, these Gentile cities which were on the border of the children of Ham, when Ham, in the new world, had committed that incest with Noah's wife, his own stepmother, and look what came and happened. Noah said, “Cursed be Canaan, the son of Ham,” and that curse was upon the Canaanites. [Genesis 9:25 –Ed.] And when you go in Genesis 10, It tells you, Sodom and Gomorrah was the land of the Canaanites.

And Lot was so unconscious of what was taking place with Abraham. Lot was so unconscious that Abraham was following something; that Abraham had continuity. Abraham knew the hour had come for the visitation, he understood the time and the season. God began to open up... After twenty-four years, God changed his name, brought circumcision, gave him further revelation of the time; set him in order for the visitation of the angels.

And Abraham was so sensitized, he was walking in an hour where he knew, "When you see those angels appearing, the change is at hand." Because with the coming of those angels, there was an investigation judgment coming, there was an opening of the mystery coming, it was to give them faith and set them in order for the promise, it was to take the unbelief out of the church and bring the church up where Sarah was doubting; (is that right?) rub the make-belief out and raise her into a higher bracket of faith for the change.

And while that was going on in this group that was so sensitized and knew, "Next twenty-eight days," the other group down in Sodom there, their family, their family... And when Abraham realized that it was Sodom He was going to, and He was talking judgment, Abraham began to plead and beg because Abraham knew, "That world is about to pass away."

And Lot's wife down inside of there, here was this woman, here was this woman, she did not know the world that she was conformed to, the world that she lived for, the world that she was gripped by and molded to reflect, the world that she lived in and tried to keep up with all of its trends, and when that Word was telling her, "Go quickly; the time is at hand," she couldn't move. Angels from Heaven, they'll pick you up one of these days. And those angels that came to pick them up, she couldn't even move and they were right there in her house. She could not even recognize the supernatural.

You see, what happens with some of you all, you say, if an angel comes into your house, you will know. They knew they were angels but it comes...

And Lot was arguing with the angels: "Let me go into another city; that little city."

He said, "Go to the mountain!"

He said, "Let me go into that little city. It's a little one."

He got so conformed to city life, he said, "Up there, there isn't any Burger King. Up there doesn't have any 'Kentucky'; KFC Drive Thru." [Fast food restaurants -Ed.] Do you understand what I'm saying? He got so cultured into city life, he could not take his life being disrupted. He went there and ended up with two children for his two daughters. He went there and got drunk; city life. The glamour of Sodom paralyzed Lot's faith.

"But Abraham's Eagle eye..." The Prophet said, "Like Moses was looking through the same window that Pharaoh looked through." Eagles, they soar up into another realm. Can your spirit soar? Is there something in you that wants to elevate and lift you up? Lord, lift me up and let me stand, by faith, on heaven's tableland; a higher plane than I have found, to mount up with wings of an Eagle; to come up into the Heavenly vision.

Come up hither, where He's trying to raise this church up in this Hour, showing you the woman in travail, showing you the conspiracy and the conspirators, showing you the insane Age, showing you it is time to stand up for the cause of the Word; showing you, don't despise the Birthright; value the Birthright. He is talking to you.

You say, "Lord, this is what You have been telling us. You have been telling us these things. God, I was sitting right here in the meeting and I wasn't getting; I could hardly perceive." Know your hindrances and break through your hindrances. Because without that Birth, you can't come out of this world. There's no way you can come out of this world.

It is the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh, the pride of life – these are the bars of the cage: these are the things that are designed to appeal to your senses, these are the things that manipulate you and get into your system and control you from the inside, and these are the things that they have produced, through science, to satisfy your perverted taste.

He perverted the world, the original Eden, because he can't create. He deformed it into this kind of Eden; everything God created. When he perverted the food, he destroyed the body. He opened up the fourth dimension and tried to transmit all these things from Hell, all these kinds of images, all these hideous things, all these sensual things, and perverted the spirit of man. Then he set up all these false religions and perverted the soul of man. And he took in man, body, spirit and soul; perverted them completely; thoroughly perverted.

Man feels they are happy, but what is he happy on? It's God's water with alcohol in it. It's God's food, processed with all kinds of preservatives and all kinds of different things. And then through genetic engineering manipulated the things, mixed a tomato with a potato, mixed this with that, mixed this with something else, brought this hybrid corn, made corn flakes out of that, and next thing, women are getting broad on their shoulders and narrow on their hips, and men are getting narrow on their shoulders and broad on their hips.

And long ago, girls used to have nice, little feet, seven and a half, now girls have size twelve feet. Seven years old and they are having their ladies' cycle and things already, at seven years, eight years old. All those things they pumped up in the mad cow beef, all those things they pumped up in the chicken, all those things they put in the egg, deformed the human body with it; made them a weaker race; dying. Every flu that passes, every virus that passes, they have it, and then they produce all these pharmaceutical drugs to keep them living off of that, day and night, day and night. What kind of world is this?

My mother used to walk around the yard and pick up vervain [medicinal herb -Ed.], pick up this other bush. Brother, when we got a purge, we got good, old castor oil; got fixed up. Brother, now they have to get all these kinds of special things. When you go to the drugstore, a man in a white jacket there, stands up and tells you, "This will surely work and this will—you have to take this one," and so and so and, "Take three bottles of that," and man is spouting out their knowledge and trying to overpower your mind. You take your money out of your pocket and put your faith in some man-made thing. And then afterwards, six years down the road, you hear, well they have to take those things off the shelves because really, they find now, it has side effects, after they glorified it; big discovery.

That's the world we live in, friends. Wake up and see what is happening. That's why this world has no future; it's dead and gone. That's why the new generation, brother, everybody has a gun. By the time they reach fourteen years old, the amount of violent movies they've seen. They maybe have seen about two thousand killings, they maybe have seen about eight thousand seductions, all this violence and sex movies, and they have them so cultured on that diet, by the time they come out on the street, brother, you see that walk, that body language, that kind of stare, that aggression that they have, they can't tolerate this, that kind of reaction; they'll blow up under pressure.

And how do you think it got in the country? You have all these big people on the censors board, they don't see anything wrong with that, and nothing wrong with this, and nothing wrong with that. And when all those seeds start to bring forth and it starts to spawn crime, and it goes out of control, when you find the kidnappers who are kidnapping who, brother, it's seventeen and eighteen-year-old kidnappers.

And you have to get a special anti-kidnapping squad with special anti-kidnapping squad instructors from the big countries, but what kidnapping school are they going to? You are getting all these big, highfalutin, special gadgets, special technology, special this, special instructors, going for training to catch the home-grown kidnapppers right here in this small island who are not going to any kidnapping schools to learn kidnapping techniques.

Does it make sense? How could that make sense? They call it education. UWI [University of the West Indies -Ed.] gives them that. I feel safer with my little common sense right here, from out of this Book. [Bro. Vin taps the Bible -Ed.] Because I can see the foolishness of what they call wisdom.

Now they've given you laws, you can't beat children. You see the society? The Bible says, "If you spare the rod, you'll spoil the child." We are not talking about abuse, we are talking about correction, because God corrects nations. God chastised Israel seventy years in Babylon; four hundred years in Egypt. Two thousand years after they rejected Jesus Christ, look at what God did to the church. "If you are without chastisement," he said, "you are bastards."

But they have left the wisdom of God in the Bible, and they've come up with their own man-made wisdom on how they can get society to be. Do you think they will apologize and say they are wrong, and go back to basics? They are too proud for that. They will have to come with a new technique and a new higher wisdom. No, friends! This is an Eden of death. This is an Eden of sin. This is an Eden designed to destroy. But we are leaving here; we are going back to that real Eden.

Let us stand to our feet. I want to read you a quote. Let's stand to our feet. I'm going to read it standing. Do you see why the Love that was in the first church, that Perfect Love, and what it came down to in the last day church like Sodom? Because remember, Eve fell in God's Eden and just like the spiritual Eve fell in the beginning of the church Eden, and look at what we have in the last days.

Since I started this, this is the quote I wanted to read. It is really a prayer from Leadership [1965-1207 -Ed.], the last message before Communion [1965-1212 -Ed.], before God's servant went off the scene. And this was his prayer. And we are going to read this prayer and we are going to sing a little song and worship Him a little bit. And you in your heart, as you sat today and you listened and you took in the Word, meditate upon It. Think on these things.

Here he was crying out in his prayer. He had preached Leadership. He said, "My title is Leadership; my subject is Follow Me." That's why Jesus told the rich, young ruler, and he was telling an Age that was rich and increased with goods, thought they had need of nothing, religious to the core, and God presented it to this Age the same way. The same Son of Man presented the Leadership of Eternal Life, like the rich, young ruler, who was a symbol of this Age, and they rejected it the same way.

And in his prayer as he was closing, after a life of fifty-six years, from when the Pillar of Fire came over that little crib, until he was getting ready to go off the scene here.

He said [1965-1207 -Ed.]: Oh God, let me go, Lord. Don't leave me behind, Jesus. Let me go with You, Father. I don't want to stay here on this earth to watch these tribulations coming on. I don't want to stay here in this insanity. I don't want to stand here when hideous sights, the people losing their mind. We look at men trying to act like beasts and look like beasts...

They have all those with tattoos, all those things in their eyebrows, all those kinds of clothes they were wearing, all those kinds of haircuts and different things.

... and the women trying to look like animals, with the paints on their face. Knowing that these things are predicted to happen, that the thing will, they'll go so insane till locusts will rise up with hair like women to haunt the women, and teeth like lions, and things that You've said; the mental condition of the people will be completely gone. We see it in the making right now, Lord.

In 1965 he said, "Lord, we see it in the making." The Seals had opened, God had dropped down on the earth. And God was ripping the Seals of the book, and one of the Mysteries was 'the original sin'; one of the mysteries was 'where organization came from' – from the lie that was told to Eve. The deception of the church, it gave birth to a reprobate, who came with a false worship. The first marking of the first human being, was him right there, who was born by the lie; who lied in God's face because he was born by a lie, because he was born from the very father of the lie, who challenged God up in Heaven.

Look at the perfection of the Bible, friends. Those things have been traced all the way back, backwards and forwards. And then when he saw that, and he saw this new world that started, he started to unveil that for you: Satan's Eden [1965-0829 -Ed.], God Of This Evil Age [1965-0801M -Ed.], And Knoweth It Not [1965-0815 -Ed.], showing the condition of the world, the condition of the people and the god who built this world, to put them in that condition; hold them in that condition; to enslave them; a world that was designed to bring them into insanity.

Because man, when God made the first man, he was to have the Mind of Christ. God passed the animals before Adam, and everything that God had made them, Adam could name them, because he and God were in the same mind. He was made for, what? Fellowship. He was a little one like God; same nature. God gave him a kingdom and a position as a king with dominion over it because he was a son – God, reproduced in human flesh on the earth with the same mind.

Doesn't the Mind of Christ come back in the last days? Isn't the Secret in the back-part of God's Mind to be put in the heart of the Bride? Didn't the Capstone, the Intelligence of God, come on the Bride? Didn't he say, "The Bride has the Mind of Christ and She knows what He wants done with the Word"? That's what he had.

Then, when you reject the Mind of Christ, what are you going to have? It is designed to go into insanity, friends. And this information Age, the climax of this Eden, brings it. Life gets too fast and there are too many activities, and the human being is overloaded with things he wasn't designed for.

He said: ... We see it in the making right now, Lord. Help us. Restore us to the sane mind of Christ Jesus our Lord.

O great Leader of Eternal Life, we accept Your promise tonight, Father. I plead for this people. I plead for every one of them, in the Name of Jesus Christ, Lord. I pray that Christ the Son of God will come into the hearts of every one of us, Lord, and mold us and make us into new creatures in Jesus Christ. Grant it, Lord God.

We love You. And we want our dispositions--our change to come into us, that we can be Your children, feel of Your Spirit moving in our hearts, Lord, tendering us and bringing us to realization of this insane age that we're living in.

"Your Spirit Lord, coming, tendering us" – this was a prayer in his heart before he left the world. He said, "I see it in the making. I see what is coming. I opened the mystery of it. I see hell is going to be created on the earth. Lord..."

Down through these years, I always try to pick up that, and the Holy Spirit brought that back right here. Why? To keep bringing us to the realization of this insane Age. Can you see it? I'm trying to break it down; I'm trying to describe it. I'm trying to show you what you bump into every day; what you are influenced by every day.

I'm trying to show there was a thought, there was a designer behind all of this, with an intent to ensnare and trap and control, and influence, and pervert. Because in this war between him and God, he is taking prisoners. And when he wins the greatest battle ever fought in the mind, he locks you away in his kingdom, and he begins to take your body over, and uses you to fulfill his purposes. He said, "I'm short-up of prostitutes outside there. I'm short-up of conmen outside." Do you get what I am saying?

Do you know what he is going to do? Like a slave master who has a big kingdom: "I have nobody to feed my swine." This man lost his inheritance, he dropped down here through a debt his father can't pay; he ended up in slavery. So the master sees he is big and strong, he says, "You are going to dig my quarries." He knows how to exploit that man's strength. "You have a good voice, you can sing; you will entertain me; entertainment section for you. You have administration skills; I will make you an executive. You will be a slave-master, a taskmaster, to make sure the work is rigid and I get enough production." He has a plan for you in the kingdom too.

When he takes prisoners, friends... He is using slave labor. Pharaoh used slave labor to build his kingdom. Do you see how the footballers are slaves, they buy them and sell them, but they feel because they are precedent, they feel they are free? It is the same way in Satan's kingdom, he calls you an executive, he calls you this, he calls you a CEO, he calls you all kinds of things, but it's a slave.

We have another Kingdom and that revelation is creating that right here amongst us. And when we are inside of here, we are all equal. We say 'brothers' and 'sisters'. We are redeemed and washed in the Blood, and all men have on white robes, and the Master has a white robe. He said, "You will walk with Me in white," because He's wearing white too. Yes, sir! Oh my!

Because we are in the Exodus going out. We are under the Blood. We have applied the Blood of a slain Lamb. Our ears are attentive to the sound of the Trumpet. And we are feeding on unleavened bread that we are eating, and there are some bitter herbs in it too, but that is to tell us that our bitter bondage is over. Amen! Hallelujah!

He said: ... Grant it, God. When we see young women so caught up in the web of the devil, young men, perverted minds, children, dope addicts, cigarette smoking, drinking, immoral, Satan's Eden.

God, it taken You six thousand years, according to the Bible, to build an Eden. And You put Your son and his wife in there (his bride) to rule over it. And Satan come around and perverted it; he's got six thousand years, and he's built his own intellectual Eden through science, and education, and so-called intelligence, and he's built it into a mess of death.

O God, take us back to Eden again, Lord, where there's no death, where there's no sorrow. Grant it, Lord. We stand humbly, waiting for the Second Adam to come for His Bride. Make us part of Him, Father. We pray in Jesus' Name.

Then he said: Do you love God?

Do you love God this morning?

He said: ... Do you realize what I'm trying to tell you?

Do you realize what I'm trying to tell you?

If you can understand this [he said] just raise your hands...

Can you understand? Amen.

... "I understand what you're trying to say." [He said:] Can you see the insanity of this age? Look how it's gone; there's [not] even reasons among the people no more. It's gone. ... Even leaders...

Oh my! He said, "In the church; in the Ministers!"

He said: ... Where [are] those men of God, those prophet that [will] stand out and ... defy all the things of the world?

Where is those men of integrity? Where are they at? They're so soft, and through intellectual conceptions and things, till they're not [out] here no more. O God, have mercy upon us.

These hideous sights that's coming upon the earth. You can see how the people's moving right into it. It's an insanity. But when that thing strikes, the church will be gone.

He said: God, let us be there. That's my prayer to the great supernatural Being that's in this building... [this morning], the great Christ that still has Eternal Life. I pray Thee... redeemed with Your Blood. God, don't let a one of us be lost. We want to be right with You. So cleanse us, O Lord, from all of our iniquities. Take away our sins and things.

We [have] seen You heal our sick, even raise our dead (come back to life through prayer), and we seen all these things happen, Father. Now bring us back to Life, spiritually; bring us back into realization of Eternal Life through Christ Jesus. [Grant it, Lord.] Grant this, Father. I commit it all to You. In Jesus Christ's Name.

He was praying that they would get a realization of the insane Age. He said, "I can see people moving into it right now. It's in the making." Man wants to look like beasts; don't know where their influence is coming from. Women want to look like animals; they don't know where their influence is coming from. Their taste has been perverted in an Age where the churches have been perverted. Our food has been perverted; everything. The things we eat, our clothes, everything, has been perverted in this Eden of death.

Remember in Mexico just December [2004-0305 -Ed.] last year, those Mexican pilots, they saw those UFOs. Maybe I should read it for you. We went through that here already. [Last Trumpet Newsletter, August 2004 -Ed.]

Mexican Air Force pilots filmed eleven unidentified flying objects [UFOs], in the skies over southern Campeche State, a Defense Department spokesman confirmed yesterday. A videotape made widely available to the news media yesterday shows the bright objects, some sharp points of light and others like large headlights, moving rapidly in what appears to be a late-evening sky.

The lights were filmed on March 5th by pilots using infrared equipment. They appeared to be flying at an altitude of about 3,500 meters (11,480 feet), and allegedly surrounded the Air Force jet as it conducted routine anti-drug trafficking vigilance in Campeche. Only three of the objects showed up on the plane's radar.

"Was I afraid? Yes. A little afraid because we were facing something that had never happened before," said radar operator Lt. German Marin in a taped interview made public yesterday. "I couldn't say what it was ... but I think they're completely real", added Lt. Mario Adrian Vazquez, the infrared equipment operator. Vazquez insisted that there was no way to alter the recorded images.

The plane's captain, Major Magdaleno Castanon, said the military jets chased the lights, "and I believe they could feel we were pursuing them". When the jets stopped following the objects, they disappeared.

A Defense Department spokesman confirmed yesterday that the videotape was filmed by members of the Mexican Air Force. The spokesman declined to comment further and spoke on customary condition of anonymity. The video was first aired on national television Monday night, then again, at a news conference yesterday by Jaime Maussan, a Mexican investigator who has dedicated the past 10 years to studying UFOs.

The Prophet said, "The Pentagon..." Now the Mexican Air Force, all these people are seeing these things. He said, "What are they? What are these UFOs?" He said, "That's investigating angels of judgment, coming down because it's a day like Sodom, when angels came down to investigate before the place was burnt."

Then look, let me just read back some of this here on this: Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed. [Amen.] Never has there been such an uprising of the homosexuals or Sodomites such as we have seen June 26th, 2004. Massive gay pride parades took place all around the world on that day for twenty-four hours. The sun never set on the massive queer uprisings that circled the entire globe involving millions of people.

It was planned so that it would be completely around the world, in every city, in different time zones, that at no time the earth was going to be without it for twenty-four hours; planned like that to put it out on display because it was so powerful. They started to come out of their closet. In other words, what is it? It's those Sodomites bursting through the door to come in now. Why? And take over, because it has to be.

From that Agapo Love, I showed you how it deformed and deformed and deformed, until it became sensual, beastly love; a man, who was made in the image of God. And when God came down and watched a man, they had no fellowship that God could fellowship with, and the ones God was trying to save were so desensitized. Think of it.

The same God Who came down in the Garden of Eden, and the world that was a beautiful world with no death, had become sin and God had to burn it by fire. And Jesus said, "As it was in that day, so it shall be here." And God has perfectly paralleled and acted out that Scripture with the coming of the Son of Man in these last days. But we, under the Message, have seen these things.

Government officials and even church leaders marched with the Sodomites [Government officials and even church leaders marched with the Sodomites] in these parades which took place in San Francisco, Rio De Janeiro, Calcutta, Guatemala City, La Paz, Bolivia, Vienna, Mexico City, Bogotá, Colombia, Rome, Madrid,

Zagreb, Croatia, Hamburg, Berlin, San Salvador, Tel Aviv, Jerusalem and Toronto.

Tel Aviv and also in Jerusalem. In Jerusalem, the city of the great King of the Bible, where the Holy Temple of God was? What does Revelation 11 say about Jerusalem? The city that is called, what? Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord was crucified. The city that is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord was crucified! The most holy place on earth that rejected Jesus Christ when He was crucified. Last year, there was one of the biggest gay parades in Jerusalem, where the saints used to go up three times a year to appear before God in the only provided place of worship to worship the King. Think, friends. If you are spiritual, think!

In Paris, the French Mayor married gays at the front of a parade that involved seventy thousand people. [Seven Hundred Thousand -Ed.]

Lot was the Mayor of Sodom. Here is a French Mayor marrying gays in front of the parade that involved seven hundred thousand people.

The biggest European gay parade and festival was in London, England, where large numbers of Sodomite police officers led the massive procession down Piccadilly. In New York City, thousands joined the Sodomites parade down Fifth Avenue after the parade was launched by Mayor Bloomberg.

The main mega cities, the metropolises of the world, the main centers of the arts and music and entertainment and, you know, commerce and banking and these things; religion. Watch.

I'm showing you the UFOs; I'm showing you the Sodomites. But they are all desensitized. Look at what is happening. It means nothing. The mind can't think of it as revelation of the Bible and they are trapped in there.

One entry in this New York queer parade was two nearly naked men wearing only fig leaves and large ribbons that said 'Adam and Steve'.

It is Adam and Eve, so they were playing Adam and Steve. [Bro. Vin chuckles -Ed.] Thank God we have the real Steve here, (amen,) to condemn that thing. That's right.

The homosexuals never came out of the woodwork, and have risen up with a new aggressiveness. The High Court of the People's Republic of Massachusetts ruled in favor of full and equal marriage rights to gay couples. In San Francisco, California, over two thousand homosexual couples stood in a vast line on Friday 13th 2004 [that was the day before Valentine's Day], as San Francisco Mayor Garvin Newsome defied the law and authorized marriage licenses to be issued to gay couples. This continued on throughout the weekend and it's obvious the state opened to accommodate them.

Two thousand homosexual couples standing there in line; they marry and were given license to marry. Last year, the world changed, coming to these things. That's right, friends. He said, "The cry has come up and I am come down to see if it's so, and I will know." [Genesis 18:21 -Ed.]

And here, the angels are coming, appearing. Those Air Force pilots, who were monitoring the skies and the security of their country, saw those lights moving; they started to chase them down and they disappeared. But they filmed it on infrared. The angels allowed themselves to be photographed again. That's right. And while that was happening, the same year on earth, it was bursting out all over: Toronto, Massachusetts, Boston, San Francisco, brother, they licensed them everywhere, legalizing it and everything else.

Why is this all happening? It is because we are a nation and a world that is saturated with occultism and witchcraft. In the realm of the occult there are two ways that power is obtained and invoked. These two ways are through the rituals of sex, and rituals of blood. [Last Trumpet Newsletter, March 2004 -Ed.]

Think! Think, friends. What brought the Fall of the world? What did Satan use to enslave man? What does he continue to do? Why is everything in the world today, sex, sex, sex, sex, sex, sex? And after that, what is the next thing with this false religion? Shed blood; blood. For what? Religion; to propagate the lie.

We have not followed cunningly devised fables, friends. Little children, take this Word into your hearts; mix It with faith. Understand the Hour we are living in. Understand the Hour we are living in.

Let's just sing that song again. I was going to sing something else but I just... It seems like that is inside of me: We are free. We are free; freedom from bondage.

I trust that you appreciate the Word this morning. Amen? Praise His Mighty Name. Hallelujah! Oh thank You, Lord! Thank You, Lord. Thank You, Lord. [Congregation rejoices -Ed.] Doesn't it feel good to know that God has sounded a Trumpet, He has proclaimed liberty; proclaiming emancipation? Amen. You don't have to be in bondage; you can go free. Freedom from bondage. What would you choose today? A free man forever or a servant to the grave? You can have life anew; I know God will see you through. He is calling a Bride unto Himself. Oh my!

Let's sing that song: We are free. And you sing as though you know you are free. He freed you from that cage. He rescued you from this world!

[#461 - Songs That Live -Ed.]

Chorus:

*... Before the world and its religions,
And boldly testify,
that we are bought with a price
His Blood has been our sacrifice,
Oh, that makes us free...
That makes us free...
Oh, for the Marriage unto Him...*

*... for the Marriage unto Him.
We are free,
Purged and born again,
So rejoice that in our Day,
the price for freedom has been paid.
Who the Son has set free
Is free indeed.*

*Oh, through the Seven Ages of the church,
Through the Seven Ages of the church,
Like servants unto man,
Enslaved by vain traditions,
And a world of self-made plans,
Would we ever be made free,
Or be granted liberty,
Or be forced to serve the systems round about us?
Oh, But the Bible tells about
A seventh-year release,
Where the masters freed their servants
If they choose to be set free,
And at the dawning of the day
They could go in their own way
Or take the mark of bondage ever to be a slave.*

Bridge:

*Oh, freedom or bondage
Make your choice today, friends.
What would you choose today?
A free man forever,*

Are you going to go back in that darkness? God is shining the Light to sensitize you; to wake you up. He called you out to separate you from the unbelief.

*... will see you through,
He is calling a Bride unto Himself.*

Chorus:

And we are free,

Hallelujah! The Lord freed man. Hallelujah! Bought with a price, purchased; they can never go back into bondage anymore.

*Before the world and its religions,
And boldly testify,
that we are bought with a price,
His Blood has been our sacrifice,
Oh, that makes us free for the Marriage unto Him.
Hallelujah!
And we are free,
Oh, purged and born again,
So rejoice in that in our Day,
the price for freedom has been paid.
Who the Son has set free
Is free indeed.*

Oh, our name is something different now,
*Our name is something different now,
And our life is not our own,
We're united with Jesus Christ,
He is the Word, friends.
And Jesus Christ alone,
He is the Bridegroom. Amen.
And there's no man can take His place,
There's no church we'll have to face,
Because the Voice of God
is speaking now through us.
Oh, the Spirit in the Bride!*

*And we are free
Like the eagles in the sky
Oh, and we are free,
So spread your wings and fly,
Don't look back, don't turn around
Don't do like Nellie Sanders.
To Christ we're Heaven-bound,
And who the Son has set free
Is free indeed.*

Don't look back, don't turn around,
... don't turn around,
To Christ we're Heaven-bound,
Who the Son has set free
Is free indeed.

Oh, the price for freedom was His very Own life; the price to deliver us from the cage. In the days of Noah, the tree had to be cut down, the sap had to be taken out, the ark had to be constructed; it had to be applied to keep the judgment out and give them security on the inside.

In the days of Moses, the price for freedom from bondage from that cage of Egypt that Pharaoh built, that shut them up and enslaved them, the lamb had to be slain, the blood had to be applied, to give them security to come out of that Egyptian cage. Always friends, that is what it takes.

When He came in the middle of the Bible, it was the same thing – the Tree cut down and the Lamb being slain. And when it came back in the last days, it was a Bloody Lamb as though He had been slain, coming to take the Book to loose the Seven Seals; crucified a second time in organizations to bring this freedom to us again. Oh, it came with a price. It always came with a price. Let us appreciate that today.

All around the building, all in the side rooms, all on the outside, for the next few moments, let's bow our hearts as we invite our precious brother, God's servant, our deacon, Bro. Steve [Walters -Ed.] to come and pray. Amen. And to you before we go, you have heard His Word today and It touched you in your heart and you see places in your life, and you see that you were being desensitized and you were unconscious, and you really weren't awakened and enlightened to certain things; that you were just drifting and kind of almost getting stuck in the web of the enemy, that he spins that web there to ensnare his prey. Like a snare, it will come upon the whole world.

But God has come to bring that rescue. He rescued Lot and them out. He rescued Abraham out. He rescued Noah and Enoch and they, out of that world. And here in this Hour, He is rescuing His Elect out in the same way.

Recognize it, friends. Recognize the God of the Bible, the same yesterday, and today, and forever. See what He's doing. Recognize His Truth and the continuity of the Scriptures. And today, if you hear His Voice, harden not your heart. If you draw near unto Him, He will draw near unto you, just get right into His Presence.

Flee idols! Flee those idols, children. If you are part of Him, there is something in you that will pull you towards Him. And when His Word comes and His Spirit moves in that Word, there is something that feeds your soul, that you want to rise up and be identified and live for Him.

I pray today that His grace will cause you to move into that place. Because we see the realization of this insane Age; we see it in the making. We see the people moving into that insanity, and we see the whole world being gripped in that darkness, friends. Let's wake up and recognize.

[Bro. Steve Walters prays -Ed.]

Amen. Greet your brother and sister; greet the strangers. God bless you. And let's really make that effort for Wednesday night. Amen? Let's hang in there for that Wednesday night meeting. Invite someone out and come out because I believe that God has really shown that He really wants to do something for His people in these last couple of Wednesday night services. God bless you.
